Hello, I'm Vicky, the first editor of Inside Soap back in 1992 – and I'm delighted to be asked back to say a few words for this 1000th issue!

Amazing as it may seem, when the idea of a magazine devoted purely to soap was first mooted, I wasn't too sure it would work. And when I started putting that first issue together, I discovered the soaps weren't sure either! But we all agreed

"No one was sure the idea would work!"

to give it a go – and thank heavens we did!

One thing I was sure of, though, was our first cover stars. When I revealed to the bosses Grant and Sharon staring out of issue one, they were insistent we didn't use them – they'd imagined some bikinied, sun-kissed Aussie-type on the front. However, like all the best soap women, I dug my heels in, and the rest is history.

It makes my heart swell to see Sharon back on the cover 999 issues later. Bravo! Vicky Mayer, Launch Editor Inside Soap magazine

WEEK!

CORONATION STREET | ITV MONDAY

Daniel learns the terrible TRUTH!

AS HE DISCOVERS HIS NEW WIFE HAS CANCER, WILL SINEAD ACCEPT TREATMENT?

Daniel's world falls apart around him this week, when he finds out that his new bride Sinead has cervical cancer. And the devastated fella has to face the prospect of not only losing her, but also their unborn child.

The bombshell drops after Sinead passes out at the factory, and on seeing the commotion, Ken – the only other person to know about Sinead's true condition – insists on accompanying her in the ambulance.

"Daniel is in his own little bubble, and completely unaware of what's been happening," sighs actor Rob Mallard, who plays Sinead's doting husband. "Although Sinead has been doing everything she can to make sure he doesn't find out, he's making it very easy for her. I think he's playing out a fantasy in his head, and he just doesn't notice that everything is going wrong. He's clearly not paying her enough attention."

"Daniel is shocked at first – it's like a cold bath!"

Sinead begged Ken not to tell Daniel – but he's left with no option

As Sinead is rushed to hospital, Daniel has his mind on preparing a nursery, blissfully ignorant of the perilous situation his wife and child are facing.

"He's bought a big teddy bear – even bigger than him – for the nursery," reveals Rob. "As he arrives home, he sees the ambulance driving off, and when he notices the way that Peter is looking at him, he knows it must be Sinead. At first, he just thinks she's fainted because of the pregnancy or something – but there's a weirdness at the hospital. Everyone seems to know a little bit more than he does. Then the doctor bursts the bubble by mentioning her illness, and it becomes clear that Ken already knows..."

While Sinead undergoes tests, Daniel asks Ken what's going on. At this point, Ken realises that he can't keep his boy in the dark any longer, and breaks the awful truth to him about Sinead's cancer.

"Daniel is shocked at first, and then goes into denial," Rob tells us. "Then he finally understands what has been happening, and it's like a cold bath. He goes from one extreme to the other – happiness and optimism for the future, to facing the possibility of being a widower age 23."

As the true horror of the information sinks in, Daniel's devastation turns to anger, as he realises his dad has known about Sinead's condition for quite some time, but kept the news from him. It also brings back unhappy memories of how Ken played a vital part in persuading Sinead to terminate her previous pregnancy.

"Last year, after the abortion, Daniel and Ken agreed that there'd be no more secrets between them," says Rob. "They said they would tell each other everything, so this is an echo of what happened before. Daniel still doesn't really trust Ken. And although Sinead comes across as very sweet and innocent, she's also lied a lot to Daniel, so he really struggles with this!"

The pain isn't about to get any easier for Daniel. When he hears that Sinead has refused to accept any treatment for the cancer, fearing that it would mean losing her baby, Daniel is horrified. He begs his wife to reconsider, but Sinead is adamant that the life of their child is more important, and she refuses to put it at unnecessary risk.

"Daniel has it out with Sinead," shares Rob. "For the first time, the baby becomes a foetus to him, rather than a baby. He depersonalises it. He tells Sinead that while she's trying to be a hero by throwing her child to safety even if it costs her life, he grew up without a mum. He feels that she's not being brave – he thinks it's cruel to bring a child into the world if you're not going to be there to bring it up.

"Daniel is more worried about Sinead than the baby"

"Deep down, Daniel is furious, but he can't be angry with Sinead because of how he feels about her," adds the actor.

"Because that anger still has to go somewhere, Daniel's rage redirects itself on Ken."

Back home, Daniel vents at his dad, before Peter steps in to calm things down. Daniel's half-brother tries to explain that while their father has many faults, it isn't fair to blame him for the tragedy of Sinead's cancer, or for agreeing to respect her wishes by keeping it secret.

As Daniel starts to compose himself, Peter encourages his younger sibling to be the better man and to stand by his

"It was like doing a play!"

Star Rob tells us why he was delighted to play these intense scenes...

Hi, Rob! This week sees a whole episode of Corrie devoted to Daniel finding out about Sinead's cancer. How did you feel when you heard that?

I was just delighted! It was a real vote of confidence – not only in us, but in the characters – that the bosses thought it could support a whole half-hour episode. Also, I love working with Chris [Gascoyne, who plays Peter], Bill [Roache, aka Ken] and Katie [McGlynn, who plays Sinead].

It was like doing a play! We had a read-through and rehearsals. The pressure was on, because in a normal episode they cut away to wife, whatever she decides she wants to do. Having overheard the conversation between his two sons, Ken thanks Peter for talking sense, and promises that he will do everything he can to make up for his past mistakes. Meanwhile, Daniel returns to the hospital to give Sinead the support she needs...

"Daniel is more concerned with Sinead's wellbeing than the baby's," admits Rob. "However, he also has a feeling of self-preservation. As much as he is worried about his wife, there is something in the back of his mind saying,

'How will I cope?' He needs her to survive so he doesn't have to go through that."

As the week progresses, viewers will see Daniel return home with his weakened wife after going ahead with her first round of chemotherapy. However, when the hospital calls to let her know about her next appointment, she says she won't be coming back!

How will Daniel react as he realises that not only is Sinead still keeping secrets from him, but she's refusing to continue with the treatment for her cancer?

Tom Spilsbury

another storyline, but this one is all on us. We had a great time filming it.

The scene between Peter and Daniel sees them delve right back into the past. How does it feel to talk about things that pre-date you even being in the programme?

It's great fun, because it has weight to it. People who have been watching the show for many years will remember all those things. Also, as an actor, the interactions aren't as shallow, as there is that entire history behind the words you are saying. Even though I wasn't in it years ago, the character was there, so there are sections that have real provenance, that I can just play off.

Was it very different to do so many scenes, devoting a whole episode to just the four of you?

It was like a workshop! To do those scenes in the Barlows' home, with two established actors like Bill and Chris, it felt like doing an acting masterclass. I felt really lucky. It was something that made me take a sharp intake of breath. It was very challenging, and I got to flex acting muscles that I don't necessarily use every day.

Charity surprises everyone by refusing to let Ross take Moses

EMMERDALE | ITV FRIDAY

All hell breaks loose this week, as Charity and Robert discover that Ross and Rebecca plan to leave Emmerdale village with their children in tow.

They go nuclear when they discover that the traumatised couple expect to take their sons Moses and Seb away, and a fight ensues. But while Ross is determined to go no matter what, Rebecca is torn. That leads to some tough decisions for them both.

"It gets very complicated," reveals Michael Parr, who plays the Barton brother. "Ross wants to have a fresh start with Rebecca, and he wants them to play happy families. It's a massive opportunity for him to turn away from all this bad boy stuff and go straight from now on. He'd like to do that with the woman he loves."

No one could blame them for wanting to escape, but that doesn't mean Robert or Charity are going to let their little boys be spirited away. In particular, it turns out that Ross has seriously underestimated Moses' mum.

"Ross thought that Charity would be willing to let Moses go because she's a bit of a rubbish mum," shares Michael. "But she's turned a corner since Ryan showed up, and she's trying to correct the mistakes from her younger years. He and Rebecca were more aware that Robert and Aaron would protest about them taking Seb, though."

When Robert overhears a discussion being had about Ross and Rebecca's plans, he's horrified. With husband Aaron, infuriated Robert makes it clear there's no chance.

"It's all a bit weird because Ross is arguing that he should have parental responsibility seeing as he's raised Moses, but then

Will Rebecca end up losing the man she loves, or can she and Ross find a way to make it work?

Rebecca is arguing the opposite with Robert, even though he's been bringing Seb up," shares Michael. "Rebecca has to do the right thing by her son, but Ross has to leave the village, no matter what."

Faced with a tug of love with Robert, Rebecca suggests they should wait a while and not rush into their move.

Although, as Ross isn't willing to halt his plans, does that mean the end for them?

"Ross isn't moving miles away, so he explains to her that it doesn't have to be over between them," reveals the star. "But he definitely has to go because every time he turns a corner in Emmerdale, he's reminded of what he

For five years, Ross Barton has been one of the show's best bad boys and a genuinely compelling anti-hero. But for actor Michael Parr, the time is right to try something new. How's he feeling about saying goodbye to the show?

"It's a mixed bag of anxiety and happiness," he tells us. "There are other avenues I want to explore, but I'm very sad. I feel like I'm breaking up with Emmerdale, yet it's the right decision for me at this time in my life."

Michael's immediate plan involves jetting Stateside and trying his luck in Hollywood.

"I'm in LA with my friend Adam Fielding [aka Kirin Kotecha] – we're going to try to live the American dream until the money runs out," he laughs. "I've had the best five years of my life at Emmerdale, and the opportunities this job has given me have been amazing. So, I'm going to take the plunge and be a desperate, on-the-dole actor again for now. But hopefully I can come back and do a bit more in the future."

Hayley gives birth!

Hayley faces the ghastly prospect of giving birth to her child alone

ALONE AND FRIGHTENED, THE YOUNG WOMAN BRINGS HER CHILD INTO THE WORLD...

This is the moment when pregnant Hayley's waters break – and it dawns on her that she's about to have Alfie Moon's baby!

However, disaster strikes after the determined Slater woman makes the reckless decision to drive herself to the hospital alone – worried that cousin Kat will finally learn the truth about the father's identity...

"Let's just say that no birthing plan in the world could have prepared Hayley for her nightmare journey to Walford General," grimaces our Square insider. "Everything that can go wrong does. And as for that blimmin' taxi she's been so desperate to drive, well – she'll never want to lay eyes on it again after this!"

At the start of the week, Hayley's fears mount as her due date looms closer, and she panics that the truth about Alfie will soon be exposed. The terrified mum-to-be attempts to leave Walford before any more damage can be done – yet quickly learns that doing a flit while nine months pregnant won't be nearly as straightforward as she hopes.

Kat and her family are in for a huge fright on Halloween night

Hayley's plan is to escape to a mother-and-baby hostel – but the centre informs her that she needs to have her child first before she can book in. So she decides that she wants to hurry the labour process along in any way that she possibly can...

"Hayley gets some advice from Karen – with surprising results!" grins our mole. "However, her idea is thwarted when Kat, Mo and Jean arrive home early and their relative realises that it's not going to work. But then her waters break anyway, and there is no turning back!"

Panicking, Hayley's next move is to jump into the Slater cab – only for oblivious Ian to get into the back as a paying customer! Realising she has no choice but to boot him out, Hayley drops Ian at the tube station and heads for the hospital by herself – just as her contractions move up a gear.

While the pain intensifies, Hayley struggles to drive, just as the absolute worst happens – her taxi breaks down! With that, the terrified woman's sole option is to ask for help, so she phones Keanu – only for the call to go to voicemail!

Meanwhile, Kat and Jean realise that Hayley is missing, and it dawns on them that she must be in labour. But as they worry for her, powerless to help, poor Hayley is forced to accept that she is stranded – and she gives birth to her baby alone...

"Delivering your first child is a baptism of fire for any mother, let alone for Hayley, who has struggled to come to terms with her pregnancy from the moment the stick turned blue," sympathises our spy. "You wouldn't wish the scary situation she ends up in on your worst enemy. It's utterly terrifying."

Once her baby is born, Hayley calls for help – but as her little'un starts to cry, the exhausted woman passes out.

Back in the Square, the Slaters are having the Halloween from hell, fretting over their lost relative, though thankfully Keanu finally shows up at their door after receiving Hayley's SOS voicemail.

The group mounts a frantic search, before eventually coming across Hayley's abandoned cab – with sounds of a crying baby nearby. To their horror, Kat and Keanu find Hayley unconscious and her child in distress. After mother and baby are rushed to hospital, the Slaters flock to Hayley's bedside – should they prepare themselves for the worst?

The clock is ticking as Hayley's babydaddy prepares to make his journey home...

While Hayley has been so focussed on dodging Kat's questions about her child's father, it's not even crossed her mind that she might have face up to the man himself!

EastEnders revealed last month that Alfie will be back for a story that will see him reunite with estranged wife Kat – setting the stage for what could be a huge shock!

"Alfie has a big surprise planned for Kat – but it'll be him that's left open-mouthed if he discovers Hayley gave birth to his child," reiterates our Square sneak. "The future of Hayley and her baby is uncertain come the end of this week, so it's unclear what drama awaits Alfie. But he may wish he'd stayed in Spain!"

Laura-Jayne snoops behind the big soap headlines...

EASTENDERS

HEY HONEY... I'M HOME!

Phil's on his way back to Walford – spelling big trouble for Sharon and Keanu...

The drama in EastEnders has the potential to go nuclear when King of Walford Phil Mitchell returns – just as Sharon's affair with Keanu risks being exposed! Inside Soap can reveal that actor Steve McFadden has filmed scenes that will see Phil back on our screens soon – which could make for some epic moments in the run-up to Christmas...

It can't be long until Phil discovers what his naughty missus has been up to, seeing as two Square locals already know the truth. The secret lovers will be left with no choice but to cool off their affair after Sharon's confrontation with their mystery blackmailer – just as Keanu's mum Karen threatens to tell Phil everything herself.

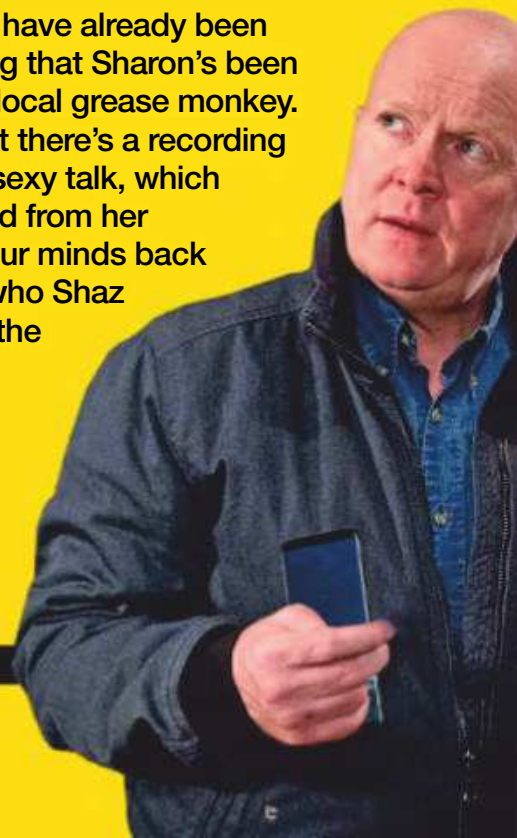

Meanwhile, the Mitchell hard man has been abroad – but Sharon hasn't been far from his thoughts. Her seemingly uncaring hubby made the effort to arrange a birthday party for her, and is surely under the illusion that his imminent return will be another gift.

"Phil doesn't even entertain the idea that she might stray," reckons our Walford mole. "However, he's no fool – and if he gets even the slightest whiff that Sharon's been playing away with another fella, the fallout just doesn't bear thinking about!"

Sharongate 2: The sequel!

We wonder if the seeds have already been sown for Phil discovering that Sharon's been doing the dirty with the local grease monkey. We've recently seen that there's a recording of Sharon and Keanu's sexy talk, which horrified Sharon received from her blackmailer. Let's cast our minds back to that time it was Phil who Shaz was cheating with, and the affair was revealed to her husband Grant via a secret tape of Sharon confessing. Will history repeat itself – this time with Phil in the role of horrified hubby?

OUT FOR REVENGE!

Mick to murder Stuart?

It looks as if another huge Walford story is racing to a thrilling climax – with new pictures showing evil Stuart getting his comeuppance at the hands of Mick!

Our sneaky snaps of stars Danny Dyer and Ricky Champ filming on location show that framed Mick is to be released from jail – before heading for the daddy of all showdowns with his arch-nemesis...

“Mick is a man on a mission – and seems set on ridding his family of Stuart’s poison once and for all,” remarks our EastEnders spy. “But the big question is: Will he really go so far as to kill him?”

We’re not willing to stake our money on it just yet! It appears that Mick will gag and kidnap Stuart, bundle him into the boot of his car and unleash his fury with a crowbar after they arrive at a scrapyard. Seeing as Stuart has pulled similar stunts in the past, is the twisted bloke finally set to receive a taste of his own medicine?

Find out when the action-packed scenes air on BBC1 later this year...

Steph has made a high-profile and glam return to the village

“MY RETURN WAS EMOTIONAL!”

Hollyoaks star Steph Davis is glad to be back home...

HOLLYOAKS

It wasn't just a storm causing havoc in Hollyoaks recently – Sinead also made a dramatic comeback after three years away from the show! And star Stephanie Davis has told us that she was delighted to be asked to return...

“I was made up when they asked me back,” grins the actress. “It was quite emotional – I’ve been here since I was 16, so I grew up on the show. It’s been a long journey, and I do appreciate it a lot more now. I realise what I’ve got and how amazing it is. Everyone has been brilliant – coming back to Hollyoaks is like going home.”

Things are slightly different for Steph this time around, now that she’s a working mum. And while things have changed off screen, a lot has changed for Sinead on screen too – and the star teased a bit of what’s to come for her alter ego...

“She’s actually married!” she exclaims. “Her husband Laurie [former Home and Away star Kyle Pryor, aka Hunky Dr Nate Cooper] comes in not long after, with Sinead’s daughter, Hannah – so that’s a bit of a twist. And it all kicks off!”

“I love my character, she’s trying her hardest to be a good wife,” adds Steph. “Everything’s together – but she still has that fire inside of her!”

"Who do you think starts the fight?" laughs Chelsea Healey, who plays Goldie. "Goldie never starts a fight – it's always Mercedes!"

The pair are held back by Sylver and Russ, while Myra tries to reason with them – but both Mercedes and Goldie are smothered in icing, and they're fuming! After the brawl, Russ ends up sitting with Goldie – he's seriously doubting that the wedding will go ahead, and Goldie lends him a shoulder to cry on. The situation heats up when Goldie confesses that she wants him, and the two end up having a full-on snog!

"Goldie feels really guilty about it," explains Chelsea. "Mercedes is her relative at the end of the day. But she kind of falls for Russ – she's like a puppy. She has the biggest crush on him!"

So not only has Goldie now kissed Russ – twice! – but she previously also came on to Cleo's former fiancé, Joel! And that secret is safely locked away, for now...

"Goldie's doing her rounds!" exclaims Chelsea. "I don't like Goldie being a floozy. The McQueens would go absolutely mad if they found out. It wouldn't surprise me if they disowned her! The McQueens stick together – they never do the dirty on their own family or betray each other. I don't think they'd take it well."

After their smooch, Goldie decides to take Russ for all he's worth – and she demands a designer handbag! But what else does she want?

“Goldie really falls for Russ – she has the biggest crush on him!”

"Goldie's been really unlucky in love," reflects Chelsea. "She falls for the wrong guys, so it would be nice for her to meet someone who's good for her! She needs a man for keeps – and not her cousin's fella!"

WILL TRACY'S HUSBAND TURN HER IN FOR HER PART IN THE CAR CRASH HORROR?

The truth behind wicked Tracy's diabolical antics comes out this week, just as Abi gives up all hope of proving her innocence.

With the police blaming Abi for meddling with Michelle's motor and causing the crash that claimed Ronan's life and almost caused more fatalities, Tracy knows she has to stay silent. But when husband Steve comes home and accidentally stumbles upon the truth, it looks as if Tracy is about to test his commitment to the vow 'for better or worse'...

"Tracy blames Steve for all of this," explains our Corrie insider. "She suspected he was having an affair with Abi and that's why she sabotaged Michelle's car. It turns out Abi wasn't Steve's fancy woman, yet Tracy was right about him doing the dirty. She's been busy making him pay for his actions since he put a ring on her finger – but now Tracy needs to call in a big favour from her cheating husband."

She's not willing to go down for what happened, although Tracy does have the good grace to feel bad about Abi. Her life has been destroyed by the incident, not least because she ended up losing her job, too. Now Abi is resigned to losing her kids and putting the twins up for adoption. Tracy vows to help her, yet there's no real way to turn things around for devastated Abi that doesn't involve the new Mrs McDonald heading back inside.

Meanwhile, Steve arrives back in Weatherfield to demand answers from his wife. She left him without his wallet or passport in the middle of the desert while they were on honeymoon, and now Steve wants to know what she's thinking. Amy can't believe it when she hears the mess her parents have made of their second go at marriage, and Steve is forced to beg Tracy for another chance. But she's got more to worry about than the state of their wedded

"When Tracy pinched Kevin's

laptop, she stashed it at the Streetcars flat – which was a big mistake," says our snitch. "Steve finds it and is soon viewing the recording of his bride damaging the car and behaving like a total psycho. This footage is everything Abi needs to prove her innocence, and Steve's holding the key to Abi thinks Tracy has her back – when in fact, she's stabbing her in it!

There is no trick or treat in store for Tracy or Abi in this scenario her future in the palm of his hands. It's clear that he has feelings for Abi, but shopping Tracy to the police destroys their marriage forever. Steve's got a tough choice to make."

After a painful showdown, Tracy decides she has to do what's right and clear Abi's name, so she heads to the police station to confess her sins. But faced with the prospect of Tracy returning to jail and breaking Amy's heart, will Steve let her do it?

ARREST ME NOW!

While Tracy's part in the Connor car crash looks set to be exposed this week, so too does Dr Ali's role in drug dealer Ronan's death.

When Ronan's mother Patti visits to ask that Dr Ali talk her through her son's final moments, it's too much for the medic to bear. Following the meeting, Ali completely breaks down – and during a drunken showdown with Robert, admits that he was responsible for Ronan's death.

Ali goes on to say that he wants to hand himself in to the police, but appalled Robert pleads with him to return to his GP training and keep on saving lives instead. Will the tortured doctor change his mind?

Keegan plots REVENGE!

CAN CARMEL COME TO HIS AID BEFORE HE MAKES A BIG MISTAKE?

Keegan entertains dark thoughts of revenge as Halloween night arrives in Albert Square – will Carmel be the person who realises what’s going on inside the lad’s head?

In the months since his best friend Shakil was murdered, Keegan has struggled to come to terms with what happened. His deep-rooted anger bubbles to the surface again this week, when someone defaces the poster of his pal – which was recently put on display by Shakil’s mother, Carmel.

“Keegan is seething after he sees what some vandal has done to the poster,” reveals our Walford informant. “It’s painful enough that Shakil is dead, but Keegan can’t bear to think that someone is insulting his memory like this. He just wants to hunt down the person responsible and make them pay.”

However, when Keegan informs Carmel about his anger, she responds by telling him to just forget about it. She reasons that it’s kids messing around, and it’s not worth finding the culprit – making it clear that she and son Kush won’t be taking any action. So Keegan goes it alone, and tracks down the boy responsible on social media.

“Keegan has all of this rage inside of him,” sighs our spy. “Once he discovers the defacer’s identity, he joins in with some trick-or-treating. He obviously has a plan in mind, though – will others work out that he’s hiding something?”

When Bernadette and Tiffany bump into him, Bernie senses something strange about Keegan’s behaviour, and Carmel picks up on similar vibes a little later on. But with no clue as to his plans, they’re powerless to intervene. What they don’t realise is that Keegan is secretly sending messages to his target, goading them to agree to a meeting. And when Keegan thinks he’s spotted the guilty youth, he starts to follow him at a discreet distance.

However, it soon becomes clear that Keegan has mistakenly followed the wrong person – and he begins to have doubts about his own plot. He’s about to give up altogether until he receives another provocative message from the vandal. Filled with fresh fury, Keegan sets off to meet the troll, intending to teach him a lesson that he will never forget...

“All Keegan can focus on is making this vandal pay!”

“Keegan is acting with exactly the same hot-headedness that saw him steal that bicycle all those months ago, leading to Shakil’s death,” laments our insider. “When he approaches his target, all he can focus on is the idea of making him pay! Even after everything Keegan has been through since that awful night, he’s really not learned anything.”

Back at the Vic, Carmel tells Denise that she’s feeling worried about Keegan – and after the other Taylors turn up at the pub without him, Carmel senses something is terribly wrong, so rushes to find him.

Can she manage to track down the lad before someone gets terribly hurt?

CARMEL'S BIG DECISION

It'll impact the whole community...

Carmel makes a big decision about her future this week – has she resolved to leave Walford behind?

We've known for a while that star Bonnie Langford will be leaving EastEnders before the end of the year, with her character set to depart after three hugely eventful years on the show. Since Shakil's death five months ago, we've seen grieving Carmel launch a campaign against knife crime, strike up an unlikely friendship with Shakil's killer's mother, Sophie, and cope with her son Kush's handling of his bereavement.

After a recent run-in with a teenager at the youth centre, Carmel decided to give up her campaigning. So is it time for a whole new fresh start for Carmel – far away from Albert Square?

Carmel finally realises that something is amiss with Keegan...

...and a chat with Denise does nothing to curb her fears

Bernice's date with disaster!

DAZ IS CLOSE TO STUMBLING UPON HER SECRET ROMANCE...

Poor Daz has long suspected that Bernice is having an affair – will he find out this week?

There's big trouble for Bernice this week – as Gabby's meddling sets Daz and Dr Cavanagh on a collision course!

She's stunned to hear that her mum has ditched boyfriend Daz, and gets the wrong end of the stick about Bernice's reasons for cutting him loose. Gabby has no idea that naughty Bernice has been having a secret fling with Dr Cavanagh, and that she's keen to spare Daz's feelings. Convinced that her mum really wants to be with Daz, Gabby plays Cupid – but gets things spectacularly wrong.

"Gabby is no fan of Daz, yet she's got her head around him being her mum's boyfriend," explains our Emmerdale gossip. "There's not a hint that Bernice has already moved on to Dr Cavanagh, so Gabby thinks she needs to step in because her mum is rubbish at romance. Unfortunately, her meddling means that Daz thinks he may have a chance of winning Bernice back. Things are going to get ugly!"

As Daz dreams of reuniting with Bernice, she's thrilled to be the centre of Dr Cavanagh's attention. They've agreed to keep things quiet, but romantic Liam is still keen to spoil her. He plans a champagne picnic for them at the cricket pavilion, and Bernice is thrilled. When she gets a note with playful instructions on where to find her smitten lover, Bernice heads off – not realising that she's made a terrible error.

"Daz rocks up at the house and on finding the note, he thinks it's meant for him," gasps our snitch. "It's no wonder he misunderstands, given Gabby's attempts to get them back together and Bernice's failure to be straight with him. If he follows the clues, he'll end up at the cricket pavilion too – and be confronted by the woman he loves in the arms of another man!

“It’s easy to be wise in hindsight, but Daz should have trusted his instincts when he first suspected Dr Cavanagh was trying to steal his girlfriend from him,” continues our spy. “He was spot on! As for Bernice, she needed to be honest from the start – though she was too scared of hurting Daz after everything he’s been through. What a horrendous mess!”

It’s a mess that could end in a punch-up if Daz discovers Bernice and her lover in a passionate embrace. Will she regret her cautious behaviour when the truth about her shenanigans comes out?

The end for Peter and Carla?

THEIR BUSINESS RELATIONSHIP IS IN BIG TROUBLE...

There's a furious showdown between business partners Peter and Carla this week – when she discovers he's trying to sell half the factory to a rival.

Carla can't believe it as her PA Sarah spills the beans on Peter's secret double-dealing, and marches over to stop him from selling her out. After everything he promised her when they went into partnership, Carla can't believe he'd stab her in the back like this. But once she and Peter are alone, it's clear they both should take some of the blame.

"Going into business together was always going to be a disaster," whispers our Weatherfield gossip. "Peter is not suited to this work, and he only did it to get close to Carla. She's failed to fall into his arms, so he's feeling bored and redundant, and now he wants out. Carla certainly hasn't done anything to make things better – she's constantly pushing him to the sidelines."

Peter doesn't want to be a spare part at the factory any more"

Carla realises that it's a case of better the devil you know

WHERE SHOULD PETER WORK NEXT?

The multi-talented fella should keep his options open...

THE KABIN

Given that Peter is often the main player in the Street's biggest stories, it would definitely draw the Weatherfield crowds if he was on hand to deliver the headlines. Plus, we bet Rita wouldn't mind a bit of eye candy around the place.

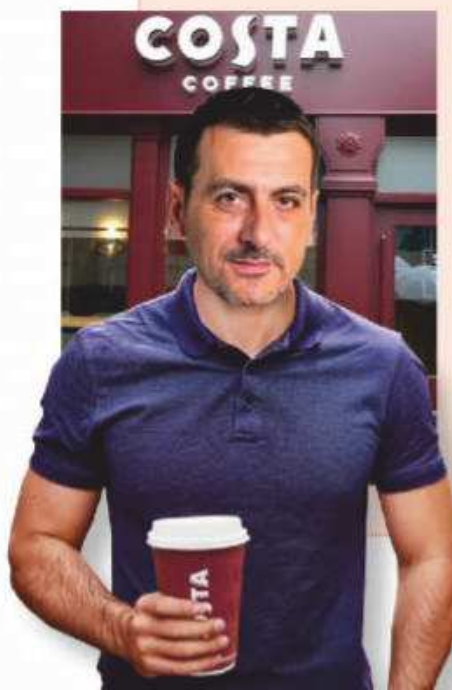

BARLOW LEGAL SERVICES

Adam and Imran know the letter of the law, but do they have the experience of life inside prison walls? After spending time at Her Majesty's Pleasure, Peter knows the hell of prison and would fight tooth and nail to protect his clients. We just fear he'd soon be trying to bribe the judges, and end up back in the clink.

COSTA COFFEE

It may have come to your attention that a certain coffee-shop chain has started sponsoring Coronation Street and has opened a branch on Victoria Street. He hasn't done much during his time at Underworld, but thanks to Carla, Peter's become a dab hand at making the drinks. Surely a Barlow barista is just what Costa is looking for?

What Peter doesn't know is that Carla's been busy trying to raise the capital to buy him out herself, and was hoping a bank loan could cover the payment.

So when he meets up with her business nemesis Nigel, Carla wastes no time in confronting them! She gives Nigel a dressing-down, telling him he'll never get his hands on her factory and swearing to destroy him if he tries. Next, she turns on Peter and demands to know what he's playing at, incredulous that he could do this to her. But Peter has a solid defence ready.

"Peter doesn't want to be a spare part at Underworld any more, treated like a skivvy and pushed around by Carla," explains our insider. "He's in love with her, and if they could work together as equals, there could be a chance for them. Yet Peter doesn't believe Carla is capable of that, and he's starting to realise that Carla will never give in to her feelings for him. It's game over."

Carla is on a mission to win back Peter's trust now, and wants to prove they have a future together. It's not just at Underworld, either – in a heart-to-heart with her dad Johnny, she reveals that despite everything, she's still in love with her ex-hubby.

However, can Peter and Carla really make another go of it after this factory debacle?

Terese gets raunchy!

The saucepot is busted with Leo by the Rebecchis...

NEIGHBOURS
Channel 5 WEDNESDAY

Terese and Leo have already had to cope with their love affair going public – yet their naughty antics are about to go more public than either could have imagined!

Ever since Leo's father Paul found out that the pair are getting it on, Terese has felt anxious. Although her young lover recently moved in with her at No 22, this week she asks Leo to return to Backpackers – but eventually she relents when she decides not to let Paul dictate her love life.

Later, as the rest of Ramsay Street prepares for the night's Halloween fun, Leo and Terese are distracted while dressing up – and stop for a cheeky fumble in the conservatory. Disastrously, they're then interrupted by the Rebecchis, who walk in on them as they're in the throes of passion!

With Terese already feeling self-conscious about her private life, how will she cope with this latest cock-up?

“Get a job, Bob!”

Does Gina love Tim?

Sally would be aghast to know what's brewing back home...

CORONATION STREET
ITV FRIDAY

There's trouble ahead for Gina this week, as her feelings for brother-in-law Tim intensify.

With Sally behind bars, it's her sister who's been there for the family, offering support to worried Tim and helping him to keep the house going. The trouble is that the platonic bond between them has changed for Gina, and she's now nursing a massive crush on Tim, who's oblivious! Worse still, Tim inadvertently stokes the fire when Faye persuades him to show Gina how grateful he is for everything she's done. He cooks her a meal and invites her to watch Weatherfield County play, before planting a kiss on her cheek.

Back in prison, Sally has no idea that she can't trust her sibling with her husband, and would be furious if she knew. The big question is – does Tim feel the same way about Gina, or are her feelings one-sided?

David's savvy girlfriend reckons there's something that Nick is hiding – but is she right to believe he has an ulterior motive?

Martin in the middle

He struggles to deal with having Ruby around...

EASTENDERS
BBC1 TUESDAY

Martin has a meltdown in E20 this week, after Ruby monopolises Stacey's attention again.

He's finding it hard to cope with her continued presence, and is miffed when she hijacks his night with wife Stacey. He ends up joining Jay and Robbie on a night out at the club, where the conversation turns to the eligible women in the vicinity. Both Robbie and Jay are looking for love – so when Martin and Robbie encourage Jay to chat up a girl in fancy dress nearby, they think they're doing him a favour – until they discover the identity of the lady in question...

As Stacey and Ruby spend a quiet evening in the Vic, Martin's having a nightmare – and it ends in disaster. In the cold light of day, the mortified man is forced to confront his actions – and it's not an easy process.

Can he start coming to terms with his difficult emotions?

What's wrong with Ruhma?

DOCTORS
BBC1 MONDAY

Ruhma suddenly has a lot on her plate, as she begins to exhibit some strange symptoms.

At the start of the week, she's perturbed after Valerie refuses to acknowledge the clocks going back. But Valerie's timing issues are soon the least of Ruhma's worries, when she trips over in the car park before getting oddly confused during a conversation with Jimmi. Clearly not herself, Ruhma is so concerned about what might be up that she heads to St Phil's for a check-up.

But will the visit put her mind at rest – or reveal something serious?

WHAT A RUNAROUND!

Emmerdale is such a tease. There's all this talk about tracking down Adam Barton now that Victoria knows he's not guilty. And while I'd love it if he came back – because I think actor Adam Thomas is really fit – even I can tell that this is leading nowhere. And what about poor Andy Sugden? He's on the run, and innocent, too! Why isn't Victoria looking for her own brother?

SPINNING JENNY

How nice it was to see, for a change, a soap character willing to forgive their cheating partner and accept their apology, as Corrie's Jenny did with Johnny. Not everything in life has to be about bitterness and revenge. People can grow and move on, you know!

👤 | Amy, Bideford

If Jenny is genuinely as forgiving as she's saying, I'll eat my hat!

put up with his son Liam instead! He just seems like a carbon copy of his dad, and I don't really like him being back. His brother Jesse is so lovely, I don't understand how he comes from such a horrible family!

Let's hope Liam doesn't succeed in getting rid of Grace!

Nice pout, Liam, love, but you're not fooling anyone

RECKLESS LOVE

Sharon and Keanu must be the most indiscreet secret lovers in soap history. I can't believe they don't have at least 10 different blackmailers the way they've been carrying on. And Sharon kind of deserves it for the way she treated Michelle for having a young lover of her own.

👤 | Valantina

Say what you like about Sharon and Michelle – they both have excellent taste.

PIPE DREAM

I'm so happy that Neighbours has given the Tyler and Piper storyline a proper ending, even if it doesn't look like they will end up together. It would have been a real cop-out if we didn't see Tyler confront Cassius about what he did.

👤 | Maddy

If only Tyler and Piper could have sailed off into the sunset!

'Doctor, doctor,
I feel like biscuits!
'You're crackers!'

KILLER THRILLER

Is it very strange that I fancy Dr Ali in Corrie even more now that he's killed someone? That's wrong, isn't it?!

👤 | Laura, Bexley

Yes, Laura, that's wrong.

GLESS HALF FULL

Can Casualty please bring back actress Sharon Gless as a full-time fixture? Zsa Zsa is the best thing to have hit Holby City ED in a long time! I'd love to see her and Connie facing-off on a weekly basis – I think Zsa Zsa is the only one who can stand up to the fearsome Ms Beauchamp!

👤 | Naima, London

There's only room for one diva in the ED, though... I don't think they'd both survive!

The BIG DEBATE!

ILLUSTRATION: ROB DAVIS

SINEAD'S TRAGIC DIAGNOSIS

We'd barely recovered from the Chas and Paddy storyline in Emmerdale when Corrie plunged us into another heartbreaking health plot. But every reader who has written in is agreed on one fact...

KATIE MCGLYNN IS AMAZING! I'm in awe of her performance in the episode where she was advised to terminate her pregnancy. The way the camera stayed on Sinead's face as she was hit by each new piece of terrible news was sooo upsetting but sooo incredible.

👤 | Maya, Darlington

Talk about bad things happening to good people!

Poor Sinead, to receive such terrible news. It was so well acted, I almost felt guilty for watching – like I was spying on someone else's tragedy.

👤 | Edward

Do you know which other classic Corrie character Sinead really reminds me of? Raquel – played by the wonderful Sarah Lancashire. She has the same feeling of insecurity, like she's not good enough, but also this incredible strength when the going gets tough. And I think Katie McGlynn could end up as big a TV star as Sarah, too.

👤 | Annesa, Aylesbury

And we received one especially heartfelt request...

Please, please, please, please, please, please, please, please, please please can Coronation Street write a story with a happy ending for a change, and find a way for Sinead to both have her baby and survive her cancer? The world is full of bad news at the moment and I think we loyal Corrie viewers, and Sinead, deserve a break!

Well, the Corrie producer is reading – so maybe he'll hear your plea, Carol!

YOUR TRICKIEST SOAP QUERIES ANSWERED...

Yep, pretty much everyone had it in for ol' Archie

FALLEN ARCHIE

This week, Stacey told Ruby that she was raped by the owner of the Vic. I don't remember that at all. What happened?

📱 | Anna

Well, I think I know why you're not remembering. Back in 2010, there were a set of key suspects for the murder of Vic landlord Archie Mitchell, including Peggy, Bradley and Jack. So, when the culprit was revealed to be Stacey at the end of a live episode, it was a big shock to everyone. Stacey's motive was that Archie had raped her. We never saw this on screen at the time, but Stacey later revealed what had happened to her husband Bradley.

WITH CAIN'S CONSCIENCE KILLING HIM, ACTOR JEFF HORDLEY ADMITS HIS TRAUMATISED ALTER EGO IS A MAN ON THE EDGE...

EMMERDALE | ITV MONDAY

Cain is not the person he normally is – this is a side of him we've never seen before," admits Jeff Hordley, who plays Cain, as he talks us through his character's current crisis. "His life is spiralling out of control, and he's on the back foot, lost and upset. So the scene is set for lots of great drama ahead..."

Cain is no stranger to a dramatic situation, but his mistaken belief that he's responsible for killing his daughter Debbie's fiancé Joe has blown his whole world apart. Viewers know Joe was actually struck down by duplicitous Graham, yet as Cain continues carrying the blame himself, he can hardly cope. And as Jeff himself insists, while Cain thought little of Joe's treatment of Debbie, he never intended for him to die.

"Cain just wanted to hurt Joe," sighs the actor, who is married to his Emmerdale co-star, Zoe Henry (Rhona), with whom he has two children. "Joe had mucked Debbie around so many times already – and then he left her at the altar. Cain saw how upset Debbie was at that point, and he did say that if he ever saw Joe again, he would kill him. But it was just a figure of speech."

So far, distraught Debbie remains oblivious to her father's role in Joe's sudden disappearance. Meanwhile, cunning Graham continues to keep his counsel, knowing that he has Cain just where he wants him. But it's a secret poised to explode at any moment – and we can't wait for the showdown that'll surely ensue when it does!

"At the moment Graham holds all the cards – and while I wouldn't say that Cain is intimidated by Graham, he's a match for him, that's for sure," muses Jeff.

"If this was a game of chess, then Graham would definitely be looking like the likely winner. But hopefully, a face-off is where this is set to end up for the two of them.

"I love working with Andrew Scarborough [aka Graham]," adds the actor. "He's great fun to be around, and we're really enjoying playing out these scenes. Is Graham scarier than Cain? Ooh, that's a tough one... Perhaps it'd be a tie!"

Fortunately, Cain has at least one person fighting his corner, as he confesses everything to his concerned wife Moira this week. Any worries that his sinister secret will scupper their marriage soon evaporate, after Moira pledges her devoted support.

"Moira is brilliant," reckons Jeff. "She's someone who's been involved in a similar situation, when Emma was killed. So she's a real pillar of strength for Cain, telling him they'll get through this together, that she'll be right by his side – exactly what he wants to hear. It's a huge weight off his shoulders, unburdening himself of this horrible secret. He's so relieved."

However, the prospect of his daughter Debbie finding out what Cain did will continue to plague him. And Jeff doesn't underestimate the devastating consequences, should Debbie ever do so...

"It would put a huge rift in their relationship," sighs the star. "If Joe hadn't died, then I think that in time, Cain would have come to see that he really did love Debbie, could have made her happy. Now the fear of losing his daughter is Cain's major worry – even more so than his fear of going to prison!"

Allison Jones

Cain did say he'd kill Joe – but it was just a figure of speech!

Guilty Graham: Will the true killer of Joe be unmasked?

Debbie's in the dark: Will she find out what her dad is hiding?

Cain AND ABLE

Why Graham's latest nemesis is not a man to be messed with...

WATCH OUT, Sadie King!

After Cain rejected her, Sadie paid for Jasmine Thomas – who was carrying his baby – to have an abortion. When he found out, he kidnapped Sadie and her father in law Tom for ransom, then fled the village with the cash.

DON'T LOOK NOW, Nathan Wylde...

When Nathan Wylde framed half-brother Ryan Lamb for killing their father Mark, Cain was paid to keep quiet. After Nathan lied in court, Cain kidnapped him, informing his sister Maisie of his crime. She called the police, and Nathan went to jail.

BE CAREFUL, Jai Sharma!

Jai accused Cain of stealing from his parents, so Cain used his sister Priya in a plot to take revenge. Jai had Cain arrested for blackmail, so when he was later found beaten, Cain falsely accused Jai of attacking him.

BRACE YOURSELF, Ross Barton!

When Cain found out Debbie and Ross were planning to run away, he told his daughter that Ross was the father of her mum Charity's son, Moses, so Debbie carried on with her marriage to Ross' brother, Pete...

TAKE HEED, Gordon Livesy...

After Cain discovered Gordon had raped son Aaron as a child, he tied him up, forcing him to drink vodka and take sleeping pills to stage a suicide attempt. Aaron managed to stop Cain, and then reported his dad to police.

“Sienna would be a cool teacher!”

AS HER ALTER EGO BREAKS INTO THE SCHOOL, ANNA PASSEY TELLS US SIENNA IS DEFINITELY DETERMINED...

“If you had told me six months ago that Sienna would be playing a tambourine in the middle of the village, while singing and wearing a beret, I would not have believed you at all!” chuckles Hollyoaks star Anna Passey, as she joins us for a chat about the new-look Sienna. “I almost feel like I’m filming a Sienna spin-off – it’s a completely different experience for me. I’m enjoying coming into work and having a nice time!”

And this week, there’s even more for Sienna to smile about, as Liberty gives her sister her blessing to date Brody...

Sienna and Brody shared a kiss, but how does she feel about him?

It started with a kiss: Where will Sienna's romance with Brody take her?

Liberty hall: Sienna's sis just wants her sibling to find happiness

She really likes him! They've got a connection, and I think she sees him as a kindred spirit – they're both battling their demons. But she doesn't want to hurt her sister Liberty, so she doesn't get involved.

How does she feel when Liberty gives her the green light to date Brody?

It's a really sweet scene, actually. Liberty can see that Sienna is trying to fight her feelings for her sake, so she says to her, "Go for it, I want you to be happy." Sienna is very excited – she runs off to ask him out!

Sienna also has her heart set on becoming a teacher...

I know, and it's hilarious! Of all the things I thought Sienna would end up doing, it wasn't this. But I think she'd be a weirdly cool teacher. Perhaps she doesn't have the most traditional methods, though...

She even breaks into the school this week, to teach a class!

She just sees an opportunity and takes it. Nancy's off sick, and there's no one to teach the class. She thinks she'll be a great teacher if she just gets the chance to prove herself. Sally busts her, and obviously sends her packing. But then it's actually Imran who says, "Oh, is she coming back? She was a great teacher!" Sally's quite impressed by that.

Are you enjoying this new Sienna?

It's so alien to me! It's been a massive learning curve, and the biggest challenge has been trying not to lose her Sienna-ness, because that's why we all love this character. She does get it a bit wrong – she goes about things in weird ways and has a peculiar motivation. She's still fighting those demons.

How long do you think it will be before she goes back to her old Sienna ways?

She's giving it her best go – but we all know what she's like! Eventually I want her to go back to that, because bad Sienna is my favourite! But for now, I'm enjoying the break – let's see her be happy for a bit longer...

Sarah Ellis

NEIGHBOURS | Channel 5 MONDAY

Evil nanny

Neighbours star Kerry Armstrong tells us how wicked Alice manages to infiltrate the Rebecchi household...

The mysterious Alice Wells moves into the Rebecchi house this week as the family's nanny – and soon causes even more trouble for the clan!

When Alice turned up out of the blue, kindly offering to help Sonya with Nell and Hugo, the stressed mum hired her, thinking she'd be the solution to all their problems. Alice claims to be in the neighbourhood dealing with her deceased daughter's estate – but is she really who she says she is? And who is her daughter?

"Alice knows what Sonya's weaknesses are, and she uses those to her advantage," explains Kerry Armstrong, who plays the newcomer. "There's almost a sociopathic side to Alice and she doesn't really see people as people – she sees them as obstacles. The directors, writers and I were kept on our toes trying to work out exactly how far she would go."

Alice finds herself drawn to little Hugo, and after her wrongdoings, feels that she has to confide in someone. Perhaps there's a scrap of goodness in her after all...

"She's so sweet and wonderful to him," sighs Kerry. "It's like Alice is Mary Poppins in one instance and then reveals all of her devious acts to a small child in the kitchen. Then she bakes shortbread, so it's great!"

Alice is the latest in a long line of villains to move into Ramsay Street, and the actress tells us that she loves finally getting to play someone bad.

"I just think she's the most wonderful character," chuckles Kerry. "She's terribly evil, which is a lot of fun to play. I was the one who said to my agent, 'I want to play baddies this year'. Alice is a terrible person. If she ever existed, I'd run a mile. Or I'd lock her up and throw away the key!"

AS HIS ALTER EGO REELS FROM A SMOOCH WITH JAC, STAR ALEX WALKINSHAW IS FEELING THE LOVE...

HOLBY CITY | BBC1 TUESDAY

Good news, Holby fans! The wait is finally over, as this week Jac and Fletch finally address that they are obviously smitten with one another!

It’s been a frustrating ride for viewers waiting to see if they’ll ever get it on, but star Alex Walkinshaw tells us that a slow-burn was always the plan...

“It’s been on the cards for such a long time – and that’s the beauty of these sorts of stories,” he explains, as he joins us for a chat. “It wouldn’t have worked if we’d seen a flicker of something one Tuesday, and then had them planning the rest of their lives together the next. This way, all the fans are really excited. It’s fantastic!”

Cheeky kiss: Fletch and Jac’s slow-burn romance is about to seriously heat up!

Copping off: Alex and Rosie have history when it comes to characters hooking up!

Although when does the course of true love ever run smoothly in a long-running drama? There’s no exception to the rule for Jac and Fletch, who are barely speaking following a passionate kiss.

“I think you have to admire Fletch’s determination – if it’s right, he will go for it,” shares Alex. “But Jac rejects him and tells Fletch that it’s because he’s not good enough! He is absolutely gutted.

“What we’ll come to learn from Jac is that she really values Fletch as her friend,” adds the actor. “She’s not inundated with them and she doesn’t let people get close – whereas Fletch has always had the ability to cut through her bristle and hardness. I think she’s worried a relationship will ruin what they already have, and Fletch is gallant in accepting that having part of her is better than having none of her.”

We doubt that’s the end of the matter – but in the meantime, Alex is enjoying the change of pace for Fletch, who between Jac and CEO Abigail Tate, has had a love life to feel proud of this year.

“It’s about time!” laughs the 44-year-old, who enjoyed popular roles in The Bill and Waterloo Road, before his Casualty character Fletch made the move upstairs to Holby. “For years, Fletch’s love life has been a barren waste ground. It’s nice that he’s getting a bit of attention from the ladies!”

Of course, this isn’t the first time that Alex and co-star Rosie Marcel, who plays Jac, have been paired up romantically on-screen. They were once doomed lovers Smithy and Louise Larson in The Bill...

“This time we’re older and have more wrinkles!” chuckles Alex, who in real life has two children with wife Sarah.

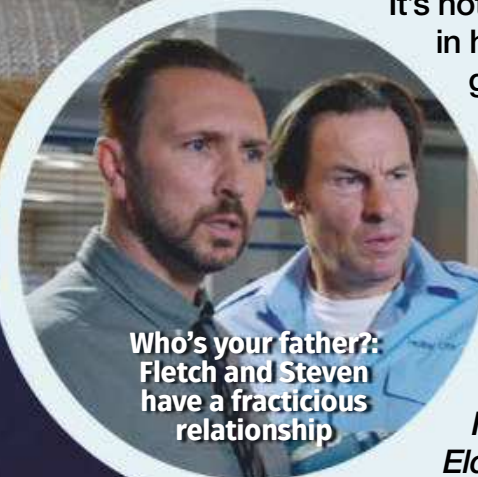

DADDY COOL!

Alex and TV father Jesse Birdsall go back years...

It's not just the ladies in his life who have given Fletch jip recently – his dad Steven has been trouble, too! However, Alex cannot speak more highly of former EastEnders, Hollyoaks and Eldorado star Jesse Birdsall, who plays him.

"It's been such a blast," grins Alex. "We actually worked together 25 years ago. I did an episode of crime series Anna Lee with him. I hadn't seen him since, but straight away we got chatting after he rocked up on Holby."

"Once fans understood that Steven was only meant to be 15 years older than Fletch – he was a young dad – they've really gone for it," adds Alex. "I think we have good chemistry!"

Who's your father?: Fletch and Steven have a fractitious relationship

"When we found out that our Holby City characters might get it on, myself and Rosie thought it was very funny. We've known each other for a really long time, and on set I'm probably the person who gives her the most grief. It makes the day go quicker!"

It's thanks to Fletch's promotion to Director Of Nursing that he ended up on Jac's ward in the first place – a change that has its pros and cons, says Alex.

"I do miss wearing the scrubs, aka my pyjamas, every day," he confesses. "I'm not necessarily a suit-and-tie-wearer myself, but I think that it works for Fletch. And now he can get away with calling himself 'The Don' which of course stands for Director Of Nursing. No one actually calls me that, mind!"

Fletch's work obligations are set to be the least of his worries soon, as Gaskell's story races to a thrilling climax, and Jac learns her life is at risk again. Could the knowledge that she might die force her to re-assess her future with Fletch?

"In those episodes, people are coming at Jac's situation from different angles medically – but Fletch is completely emotional about it," reveals Alex. "So yes, big questions need to be asked and they require big answers. I think it'll be quite obvious how Fletch feels at that point, so we'll have to wait and see from Jac..."

Laura-Jayne Tyler

Fletch can cut through Jac's bristle and hardness

The HOT gossip!

(999 issues ago...)

Launching in September 1992, Inside Soap rode the then-huge popularity of the Aussie soaps – and even included a poster of Summer Bay heart-throb Nick Parrish. Here are the big stories that the very first Inside Soap chose to shout about...

1 “Sharon thinks she can change Grant, like she thought she could change her dad, Dirty Den – but a leopard can’t change its spots!” said Ross Kemp from EastEnders. Inside Soap predicted that Grant and Sharon’s marriage would hit the rocks, but we were coy about revealing the big shock of the month – as Shazza slept with Phil for the very first time!

2 ‘Rebekah gets raunchy!’ gasped our feature, as Home and Away star Rebekah Elmaloglou (Sophie Simpson) flashed her knees. Wonderfully, 999 issues later, Rebekah is still getting raunchy in the pages of Inside Soap. Check out p28!

4 Home and Away’s Frank was catnip to our readers back in 1992. What a hunk!

5 Steve McDonald’s ideal girl, according to 18-year-old Simon Gregson, was Patsy Kensit. “Steve should be surrounded by a bevvvy of blondes!”

3 These were the boys of Beverly Hills 90210. “I hate being called a *ing teen idol,” cursed Luke Perry. The language! He’s now 52, and hopefully chilled out a bit.

6 Real-life Brookside couple Rachel Lindsay and Danny McCall (Sammy Rogers and Owen Daniels) took us to their favourite restaurant in Liverpool: Casa Italia. Rachel and Danny had a messy split a few years later. Casa Italia is still going strong.

7 Yes, Neighbours’ Stefan Dennis (Paul) did indeed offer solutions to readers’ personal problems! He told Pete from Staines: “If your girlfriend is annoying you now, what’s she going to be like in five years? Think about it.” Bit harsh.

8 Rachel Blakely and Scott Michaelson were Neighbours’ new pin-ups, Gaby and Brad Willis. Scott’s ‘surfer dude’ hair sent UK sales of Sun-In hair lightener spray through the roof.

9 Neighbours’ Anne Haddy was keen to keep playing Helen Daniels despite serious health problems. “Her medical notes have a filing cabinet to themselves,” we revealed. Anne worked for five more years, and sadly passed away in 1999.

10 Corrie’s Kevin Kennedy (Curly Watts) ‘got his own back’ on co-star Ken Morley (Reg Holdsworth) by moving the sign for the ladies’ to Ken’s dressing room door. He was probably thrilled!

Inside Soap 1000 ISSUES young!

Please forgive us the indulgence while we celebrate a special landmark for Inside Soap, as we tell the story of what it takes to put a magazine together – from soap stars to loyal readers...

“I think Sharon has always been stuck in a bit of a timewarp!”

Letitia Dean, Actress

What's this? Sharon has fallen for the charms of the most inappropriate man in Walford?

There's a saying – “The more things change, the more they stay the same.” It's a maxim that's especially true for Inside Soap – and doubly so for Sharon Mitchell!

Sharon was the co-star of Inside Soap's first cover, as she fell under the spell of her husband Grant's mechanic brother, Phil. As the ‘Sharongate’ tape would tell it: “One minute I was looking at ‘im, the next, we were rippin’ each other's clothes off.”

Now, 999 issues later, Sharon is back on the cover with another shaven-headed hunk – 19-year-old mechanic Keanu – and this time it's Phil who she's cheating on!

“The great thing about Sharon is that she never really changes, does she?” laughs star Letitia Dean. “You meet people like her, who are stuck in a bit of a timewarp! I'm fortunate that the EastEnders writers know her so well. There's so much history, and they know how the loose ends of her character can be drawn together.”

Danny Walters, who plays Keanu, is equally amused by the irony of the situation.

“We can safely say Sharon has a type when it comes to men!” he chuckles. “After Phil and Grant, I'm following in some amazing footsteps.”

While there's big drama ahead, Letitia has always been sure of her character's talent for survival.

“Sharon is like a phoenix!” she grins. “She always rises from the ashes!”

We'll see you on issue 2000 then, Letitia!

Inside Soap 10000 ISSUES young!

To bring you the gossip in Inside Soap, we have to be inside the soaps! That wouldn't be possible without the help of our friends in the soap press offices, whom we work with daily – fishing for spoilers, arranging interviews and organising photo shoots. So who better to explain how that works than Corrie's chief publicist, Alison Sinclair, who has been working on the cobbles for almost the same time that Inside Soap has been on the news stand...

Hi, Alison! For our readers that don't know, what does your job involve?

I am the chief publicity manager for Coronation Street. I head up a team of three people who look after all the press and publicity for the show – everything from setting up interviews, putting cast members on television programmes, and also crisis management. That's if the press want to talk about issues within the show or sometimes the actors' private lives.

How long have you been doing that for now?

It's been 25 years! I started in 1993, a year after Inside Soap launched. Your magazine was – and still is – a great way of gauging how the fans see Corrie. Real soap fans buy your mag, so if we haven't made your cover for a while, we think, 'Why is that? Is that because they don't believe our fans are engaged, or not?' So it is important. You're a bit like an industry magazine, as you're the only one focusing on what's happening in soaps. I also like it because I don't have time to watch them all, so I can catch up with what's happening in the other ones!

We've worked with your team for some great photo shoots. Do you have a fave?

I remember the huge cast shoot that you did for our 50th birthday. It captured the whole feel of the anniversary and was such a celebration – even though we had a tram come crashing off the viaduct! I have to say that even those cast members who only do minimum press will always do Inside Soap. You're very friendly, there is no agenda – and most of all, they trust that you're going to write it as they say it.

Corrie* launched the careers of huge stars, all of whom have appeared in our magazine. Does it make you proud?

Absolutely. I saw Michelle Keegan [who played Tina McIntyre] at an awards ceremony recently, and I always tell her how proud I am of her, as I knew her when she was just starting out. And people are always happy to chat as they tell us a lot

“If we're not on the cover of Inside Soap, we wonder what we're doing wrong!”

WORDS: LAURA-JAYNE TYLER, ALLISON JONES

“May your bubble never burst!”

Richard Arnold, Journalist

Breakfast telly star Richard looks back on his time as an Inside Soap staffer...

These days, he meets movie stars, music legends and television royalty for ITV's Good Morning Britain – but Richard Arnold cut his showbiz teeth on the features team of this very magazine, back in the 90s!

“Inside Soap was where it all began for me!” he shares. “It felt a natural home, as I’d always loved telly. Soaps have provided quite the narrative for my life – getting to know the casts and visiting the sets. Inside Soap was responsible for lighting that fire, and I had some fantastic experiences.”

Richard has interviewed lots of stars in his time, but he still remembers the glamour of his first Inside Soap photo shoot.

“It was with Emmerdale’s Malandra Burrows [Kathy Glover], Claire King [Kim Tate], Norman Bowler [Frank Tate] and Leah Bracknell [Zoe Tate],” he grins. “It was basically ‘Emmerdallas’ – Dallas in the Dales!”

“It was always a moment when you interviewed someone like Helen Worth [Corrie’s Gail], or one of the Mitchells. I still remember interviewing Barbara Windsor when she joined EastEnders as Peggy. Then there was the first ever National Television Awards – sponsored by Inside Soap at the time – where I had a frisky old time with Julie Goodyear [Corrie’s Bet Lynch]!”

Having started out here, Richard understands all too well why the public loves soaps so much – and he’s delighted that 1000 issues on, Inside Soap is still going strong...

“In a rapidly changing world, soaps provide a community,” he grins. “We have such an appetite for them in the UK – they resonate with so many people, and that’s hugely important. I made the best of friends at Inside Soap, and that’s a great legacy to have. So may your bubble never burst!”

of confidential stuff and we look after them.

Do you ever feel like a mum to the actors?

Lucy Fallon [Bethany], Colson Smith [Craig] and Brooke Vincent [Sophie] all call me their Corrie mum! I have three grown-up children and some of the cast are a similar age, so I understand what a lot of them go through. We have a comfy chair in the press office and they’ll come in for a brew, put their feet up and have a chat!

What is the best part of your job?

I’ve just read storylines that will be on screen in April, and I love working out how to tease a big plot, without giving too much away. And you guys are good at that – when we as a team see the coverage, we think, ‘Wow, incredible’.

Do you ever dream of doing something else?

No, I’m 52 now – and would love to be at Corrie until I retire. I’ve found my niche, and I’m very happy!

Inside Soap 10000

ISSUES young!

“Inside Soap readers definitely know what they like – and what they don’t!”

Steven Murphy, Editor

As the editor of Inside Soap, it's Steven's job to guide you through each week's soap drama. We ask him how the magic happens...

Hi Steven, we've seen your face in Inside Soap for a long time! How many of the 1000 issues have you worked on?

I dread to think! Putting together this issue and looking back has been like my whole life flashing before me! I first worked on Inside Soap 22 years ago as a features writer, so I've witnessed a lot of babies, bust-ups, betrayals and bumpings-off!

What's the best part of being Inside Soap's Editor?

The readers, to be honest. We're all soap fans here – we get excited by things like Kim Tate coming back, or just a funny scene like Corrie's Tracy decking Steve the other week, and we want to bring that same excitement to every issue. We get such a great response – Inside Soap readers know what they do and don't like in soaps, and aren't shy to tell us, so it's good to have that feedback and to feel you have a real relationship with the people you're making the magazine for.

What's the worst bit?

Remembering that you can't please all of the people, all of the time! People have their favourites and rightly get frustrated when they think we're not doing enough. But it's funny how it goes around. A few years ago people were asking why EastEnders was always on the cover and never Emmerdale, but now I'm getting complaints that we don't do enough

EastEnders covers and have too much Emmerdale! We follow the mood and engagement of the viewers – so we run the cover we think is most likely to tempt people to pick it up. Sometimes it surprises even me. One of our best-selling covers had the ridiculous headline 'A baby for Dot!' Readers were intrigued, and it flew off the shelves!

You must have met a lot of soap stars – so, go on, what are they really like?

Do you know what? By and large, they're really nice. They all work hard, which I think keeps them down to earth. But it's just like life, really – some people you hit it off with straight away and have a right laugh, and with others it's more about getting the job done. But no one's ever been horrible to anyone at Inside Soap, and that's the honest truth.

Okay, if there's no dirt to dig, what's been your most showbiz moment ever?

I've been to lots of glitzy showbiz dos, but the moment I'll always treasure was the time I went to Barbara Windsor's [EastEnders' Peggy Mitchell] house. She made me a cup of tea and I could hardly drink it, because I was so terrified that I would spill it on her lovely cream sofa!

“We’ve done some crazy shoots!”

Dan Goldsmith, Photographer

Photographer Dan Goldsmith has taken hundreds of images for Inside Soap over the years. We've dreamt up all kinds of ideas for shooting soapiers – and Dan never fails to make them look picture perfect. Even when potential disaster looms...

“A few years back, we had to take an actual London bus stop from Wembley to Leeds, for an Emmerdale shoot,” he recalls. “The day before, we went to load it into the van – only to find it was two inches too big to fit! We managed to get it to the studio eventually, and Amy Walsh [Tracy], Michelle Hardwick [Vanessa], and Gemma Atkinson [Carly Hope] looked great sitting on it!”

When it comes to striking a pose, the stars of soap are professionals, and always go the extra mile for Inside Soap – as does Dan with his work.

“I’ve done so many amazing jobs for you, it’s hard to choose a favourite,” he admits. “I enjoyed the moody snow queen shoot with Hollyoaks’ Lysette Anthony [Marnie] – and I loved last year’s Saturday Night Fever shoot with the Hollyoaks lot, too. It was brilliant, playing loud disco music, and I got a great Facebook picture of me [see above!].”

“I was a bit nervous the first time I shot Barbara Windsor, having grown up watching her on TV for so many years,” adds Dan. “But all those nerves disappeared the moment I met her. She’s so down to earth, and her famous giggle is intoxicating!”

Dan has also been a regular fixture at our annual Inside Soap Awards party, papping the attendees – so it’s a good thing he never tires of us or his subjects...

“The soap stars are always so friendly and approachable – they’re such great fun to work with,” he grins. “The Inside Soap team is also brilliant – you’re the daftest bunch of mad fools in the industry, and we’ve done some crazy stuff. So congratulations on making it to 1000 issues – and long may it continue!”

Inside Soap 1000 ISSUES young!

“I loved getting all the gossip!”

Jason Herbison, Producer

He's now in charge of Neighbours – but for us, Jason was always big Down Under...

For 15 years, Jason Herbison was our man in Australia, reporting on the goings-on in their soaps. These days, he still brings us all the drama – as the executive producer of Neighbours!

“The one lesson I learned from working for Inside Soap is the value of publicity,” he says, chatting to us from Melbourne. “To this day, I always make sure that our cast is available for interviews, and we have lots of wonderful photography to fill the magazine pages.”

Back when Jason first worked on Inside Soap, the demand for Oz soap gossip was at an all-time high...

“Over here, we knew the shows were popular, but no idea of the extent!” he exclaims. “It’s still mind-boggling, given we are geographically so far away. I encourage your readers to write in and demand another Neighbours cover – it’s time!”

For a lot of his time working for Inside Soap, Jason was a one-man soap machine – also writing scripts for many of Oz’s most popular dramas...

“It was a lot of juggling,” he recalls. “At one stage, I had the back half of my house in Sydney set up as a photo studio, and had soap stars coming and going all the time. I was in my late 20s, so it was a very social environment, and I got all the gossip – which I loved. Most actors were terrific fun and some very naughty! My whole Inside Soap experience was a great one that I look back on very fondly.”

“I’ve made Inside Soap part of my most precious memories”

Alison Oliver, Reader

A reader since she was young, this fan’s love of Inside Soap will always be a family affair...

Teenager Alison Oliver was a big Aussie soap fan, so the arrival of Inside Soap in the newsagent was a big event...

“I loved Home and Away and Neighbours, and they were always on the cover,” she recalls. “There was an early issue which had a Neighbours

"I have every single issue of Inside Soap!"

Steve Marshall, Reader

As thrilled as we are to have produced 1000 issues, finding a cupboard big enough to store them over the years has proved tricky. So we have a lot of admiration for one loyal reader, Steve, who has every last edition boxed away underneath his stairs!

Hi, Steve! Is it fair to assume that you are Inside Soap's No 1 fan?

Well, I'm not sure you were quite expecting anyone to come forward and say that they had every issue! When I bought the first one, I remember thinking, 'This is brilliant' as there was nothing else like it on the market.

What drew you to buy that very first edition in 1992?

I was pretty much a total soap junkie. My earliest memory of them is probably sat watching Emmerdale with my mum, who was a massive fan of the show. I was only young at the time, and my parents took me to the farm at Leathley and the village Esholt, and I remember walking around thinking, 'Wow, this is where all the filming takes place'!

How did your passion for soaps develop?

For me it was a case of, 'How can I get close?' so I joined the Emmerdale fan club. We all meet at a hotel in Leeds for the weekend and ITV does a fantastic job of taking us to the studios and the village. I've also had some behind-the-scenes access, too. Back in 2006, a group of us watched the crew construct the building for the big King show home collapse!

Have you met many of the actors?

It's funny – on the weekends I work as a guide for the official Emmerdale set tour, so lots of the visitors that we show around ask me that! I think one of the nicest stars is Chris Chittell, who plays Eric Pollard. What I admire about him most is that he always says, "Without the fans of the show, we are nothing", and he always makes the time if people ask for an autograph and a photo.

What still brings you to our magazine each week?

You have all of the soaps in one place. Even if I'm not watching them all, I can flick through and keep up to date!

What is the ultimate dream for a soap super fan?

I have three things on my bucket list – to be an extra in Emmerdale, to direct or produce an episode of the show – and to present the soap section on ITV's This Morning. Who knows? If you pursue your dreams and set your mind to it, they may well come true!

family tree – and I copied that, added bits from the magazines and stuck it to my wall!"

And Alison has been an avid reader ever since – her husband even bought her a subscription for a present 15 years ago, and when a special moment in her life came, she decided to make the magazine part of it.

"When my first son Callum was born, we made a memory box of things from that time, and put in that week's issue of Inside Soap," she says. "I did the same with my Rhys. It's a lovely thing to have."

While they have their copy of Inside Soap forever, have her boys caught the soap bug?

"We sometimes watch together when something big is happening – but to be honest, they're more into Doctor Who and Star Wars!" she laughs. "My older son wants to be an actor and he loves watching some of the stunts on Corrie – when Richard Hillman drove into the canal, he's watched that episode again and again!"

But Alison – whose favourite soaps these days are Corrie and Emmerdale – does have a soap mate to share the gossip with.

"My mum's a lifelong Corrie fan, and we also like watching the old ones on ITV3," she says. "Steve McDonald is my favourite character, and it's funny because in the old episodes, he and Tracy are friends as teenagers – and now they're unhappily married!"

"I can't wait for Inside Soap to pop through my letterbox," she adds. "I read it from cover to cover!"

10 totally true FACTS about... Simon Gregson

YOUR InsideSoap BRIEFING ON THE MAN BEHIND CORRIE'S STEVE...

WORDS: ALICE PENWILL. PHOTOS: GETTY, REX/SHUTTERSTOCK, ALPHA PRESS

1 Simon Gregson was born as Simon Alan Gregory on 2 October 1974 in Wythenshawe, Manchester. He comes from a non-theatrical background, with his father a policeman and his mother a bank clerk. Simon changed his surname to Gregson after joining Equity, the British Actors Union, and finding there was already an actor called Simon Gregory.

2 Simon attended Kingsway Secondary School in Cheadle, where classmate Nicholas Cochrane was selected to play Corrie's Andy McDonald. ITV wanted another class member to play Andy's brother Steve, and Simon was selected, as he resembled Nicholas the most. Simon hadn't planned to go into acting – "I wanted to be in the RAF and I wanted to race cars," he admitted later. "But Corrie asked for two sons to be in the show!"

4 Simon first appeared as Steve McDonald on 6 December 1989. He's still there nearly 30 years later, and has had five wives over the years! "Would I call him a ladies' man?" wondered Simon. "He used to be, before he got fat and bald!" Steve's biggest storylines include his on-off romance with Tracy, the set-up of Street Cars, buying the Rovers, and suffering with depression.

3 Simon watched a lot of comedy while growing up, and he admires the great Billy Connolly and Eddie Murphy. He claims that as a youngster, "I just wanted to make people laugh" and that he inherited a lot of humour from his mum, who's "completely insane"! He's even done stand-up comedy and as of 2018, he's won the Inside Soap Award for Funniest Male three times!

5 If Simon's not on the Corrie set, he might be found playing the video game Call Of Duty.

Every year his wife buys him the latest release of the game. "Of course WWII was terrifying – but there's also a romance about it," he reckons. "The game has got more advanced – and the graphics have just got better and better too."

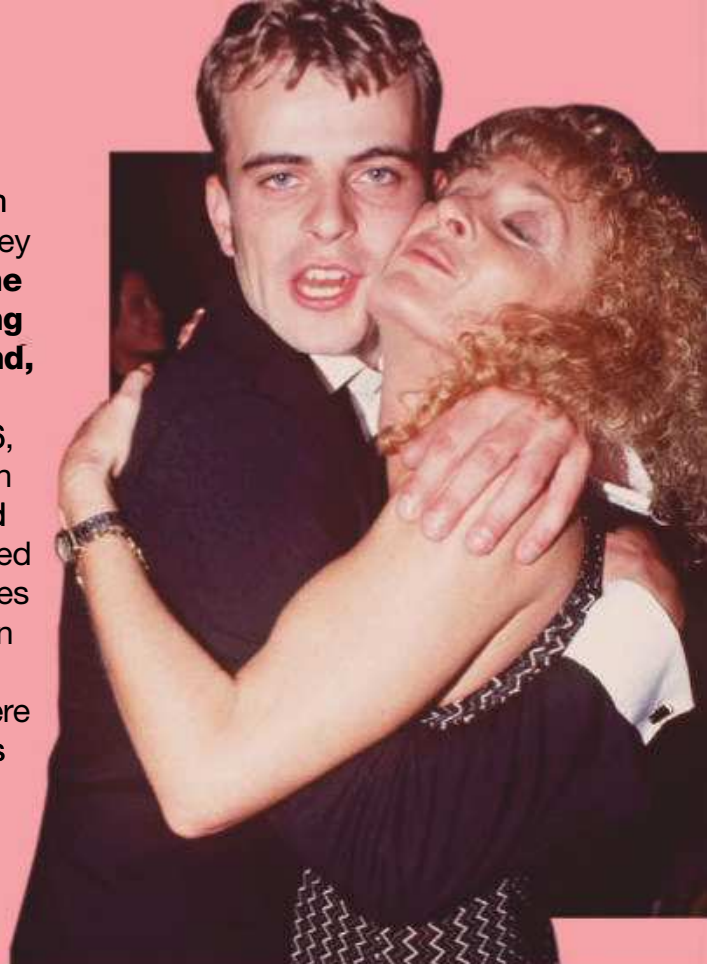

6 Simon met his wife, Emma Gleave, in 2005 after being introduced by a mutual friend – his on-screen mum, Beverley Callard (Liz)! Simon proposed to Emma after just six weeks of knowing her. "She brought a lot more laughter into my life," he said. "She's someone you could rely on." They married in November 2010, and they have three sons, 11-year-old Alfie, Harry, aged nine, and Henry Teddy, who's two.

7 Back in the 1990s, Simon struggled with alcohol and drug abuse. He was also charged with traffic offences and as a result, he was written out of Corrie for a year. "I went completely wild," he admitted in 2014. "Sometimes I'd be two hours late for work. Other times I'd not be there at all. I didn't take it seriously. I hated being famous." Simon later returned to work after attending rehab.

8 Simon is such good pals with co-star Beverley Callard that the pair even sing together with his band, Johnny Mac and The Muppets! Back in 2006, the rockers performed in pubs around the Salford area, and Bev – who used to own a boozer in Eccles – would often join Simon on lead vocals. In 2010, the tuneful twosome were at it again, singing Guns N' Roses' Sweet Child O' Mine for ITV's An Audience With Coronation Street!

9 There have been a few dogs on Corrie over the years – Monica, Schmeichel, Ozzy... and now, Rover! In 2015 the producers decided that they wanted Steve to have a dog, so Simon suggested using his own pet – a little Jack Russell called Cookie. "She did a screen-test," says Simon. "We came into the studio and they asked us to do a couple of moves, to see if she'd jump on the settee. They loved her! And so she got the part!"

10 Earlier this year, Simon took part in W's reality series Celebrity Haunted Mansion, alongside Jorgie Porter (Hollyoaks' Theresa McQueen), Alison Hammond and Katie Price.

While in the 'haunted' chapel, Simon claimed that he felt some very spooky goings-on. "Did something just hit me?" he asked the rest of the group. "Something had my arm!" We might never know if he really did encounter some ghosties and ghoulies – but Simon still went on to win the series!

WEATHERFIELD AND EMMERDALE'S FINEST HAVE BEEN GETTING INTO THE PARTY SPIRIT...

It was a battle of the style stakes recently, as a flurry of soap stars graced the red carpet. At the Manchester Fashion Show, Street starlets Bhavna Limbachia (Rana) and Lucy Fallon (Bethany) struck out in colour – while Victoria Ekanoye (Angie) and Faye Brookes (Kate) looked ethereal in their divine designs. Meanwhile, at the ITV Palooza at London's Royal Festival Hall were on-screen Dales dad and daughter Jeff Hordley (Cain) and Charley Webb (Debbie), who went back to black with former co-star Sheree Murphy (Tricia Dingle) – as cast mate (and Jeff's real-life wife) Zoe Henry, aka Rhona, plumped for a floral frock. Bold and beautiful, we say!

DANNY'S ROYAL ROOTS!

He's having a tough time in Walford as Mick Carter, but EastEnders' Danny Dyer is having fun in his latest role, as he fronts a history series for BBC1. Having discovered he's descended from William the Conqueror and Thomas Cromwell on Who Do You Think You Are? last year, Danny will explore 800 years of history by living in the style of his ancestors in Danny's Right Royal Family! He'll be doing everything from eating sheep's tongue to learning how to hunt. "I'm still in shock at being related to such important people," says Danny. "I've had a ball getting to know them. It was a nutty experience."

Corrie actor James Burrows (Ali) and his girlfriend Sophie Coates shared some happy news recently – they're going to be parents! James posted a snap of their baby scan on Instagram, and confirmed that the pair were "over the moon". James recently told us that he sometimes picks up medical skills in his role as Dr Ali – but we don't think midwifery was one of them!

KNOCKOUT WOOD!

Ding-ding, seconds out, round one! Walford's Jake Wood (Max) recently faced up to celeb Dan Osborne, who's married to Jacqueline Jossa, aka Jake's on-screen daughter Lauren Branning. As the fellas united at charity event Boxing With The Stars at the Royal Lancaster London Hotel, it seems that it was a case of like father, like son-in-law, like son – as they were joined by Jake's lookalike kid Buster, who's the spit of his old man!

THE LITTLE DRUMMER GIRL | BBC1 SUNDAY

ACTING ON INSTINCT

FLORENCE PUGH AND ALEXANDER SKARSGÅRD
STAR IN A GRIPPING ESPIONAGE THRILLER...

We know that if we were to pitch this series to you as “the new The Night Manager”, that may set unrealistic expectations, because they are very different beasts. But consider this: they’re both based on John le Carré novels, both boast star casts, both feature beautiful locations, and are both rollicking good stories.

This time, our hero isn’t a suave hotelier but a self-assured young actress, Charlie, who’s on a working holiday in Greece when she encounters a mysterious stranger. The two embark on a romance – but he has an agenda that soon becomes apparent.

“Their relationship is confusing – I think that’s the point,” reveals Florence Pugh, who plays Charlie. “You’re never quite supposed to know what’s real and what’s pretend.

It’s difficult – he can’t tell her the truth, he can’t tell her that he likes her, or that he doesn’t like her. That’s why you should never go on a date with a spy!”

The mystery man – who we’ll come to know as Becker – is recruiting Charlie for a high-stakes mission that becomes the role of a lifetime for her. She’ll discover talents she didn’t realise she had, and face dangers she never imagined.

“He’s connecting with Charlie and he really cares about her,” explains Alexander Skarsgård, who plays Becker. “What makes it great is that she’s not a badass spy – she doesn’t know anything about this world. She’s thrown into situations she’s not equipped to handle, but he can’t be with her holding her hand. The question is, what’s more important: her safety, or the cause? Is she disposable? Is it worth sacrificing an innocent life if you can save 100? That’s something he’s struggling with.”

As part of his seduction of Charlie, Becker invites her on a private tour of the Acropolis at night. Getting permission to film in the real thing was no mean feat for the production team, but both actors think it made all the difference.

“It was insane – we had the place to ourselves from sunset to sunrise,” grins Alexander. “It’s a beautiful sequence, and there are some incredible shots.”

“You’re not often allowed the real thing to react to – usually it’ll be a tennis ball on a stick!” adds Florence. “So they stuck two cameras in our faces, then director Park [Chan-wook] was like, ‘Okay, now react to the Acropolis.’

“Alex and I come round the corner and it’s massive! It was so special, no acting was required!”

Bodyguard

Bodyguard was brilliant, wasn't it? So well written, and Keeley Hawes was great. What I like is when a whole nation gets involved – it reminds me of TV back in the day, when everyone would be watching the same thing. All of a sudden you feel like one nation when something really good is on TV!

I love RuPaul's Drag Race.

It's not exactly a comedy, but when I watch it, I'm just laughing all the time, so to me that's comedy. I just love how everyone is so over-the-top. I need some of that in my life – I need to get my wig on, get some drama!

One film that I've always loved is Gladiator. Russell Crowe is brilliant in it, and I also have the soundtrack on my iPod, so when I go to the gym,

Sex And The City

I listen to that as I find it quite inspiring. It's very, "Come on, we can do this!"

Sex And The City is amazing, and because of watching that, I went to New York, and Michael [Underwood, Angellica's husband] and I eloped there. Watching that show opened up that sort of life, and we both love it!

If I could be on any other show, I'd love to be on Gogglebox. You don't have to dress up – you can just sit in your pyjamas and watch telly. You don't even have to leave your sofa! Low-effort and low-maintenance!

TOM RILEY STARS AS A DETECTIVE GRAPPLING WITH THE CAPITAL'S DARK UNDERBELLY...

Back in 2016, Tom Riley starred as DI Will 'Staffe' Wagstaffe in Dark Heart, a one-off drama for ITV Encore. While that channel may no longer be with us, the show itself gets a new lease of life this week as it makes the jump over to ITV. And don't worry if you didn't get to see it first time around, as you won't be left behind – that pilot has been re-edited alongside new material to form the first two episodes of this six-part drama. Inside TV joined Tom on set in London's Soho to find out more about the return of Staffe...

How excited are you that Dark Heart is back on our screens as a full series?

It's great! I don't think we ever saw it particularly as a pilot for a longer-running show, we very much focused on it as an hour-and-a-half feature special, and it was very self-contained as a result. Now that we know we've got a series, we're going back into that pilot, reshooting and reworking certain stuff. It's given us a chance to change things around, and to make it into an even better show than it was originally.

Staffe is quite an angry character with a troubled

The right Staffe: Tom's detective is back for more past – will we be seeing more of that side of him?

There's a [German philosopher] Nietzsche quote – if you want my pretentious nonsense in a TV magazine! – that if you fight monsters, you have to be careful not to become a monster, and there's a lot of that for Staffe. He's not just the detective who doesn't play by the rules to get things done – sometimes he doesn't play by the rules because he doesn't fancy it. He's got a low-level anger and impatience at the world, which manifests in ways that aren't particularly good for him, or the people around him.

There are lots of detectives on TV – what made you want to play this one?

This might be my blessing and my curse as far as choices in work are concerned, but NATASCHA MCELHONE STARS AS THE BRAINS BEHIND A MISSION TO MARS IN A NEW DRAMA...

Space is the final frontier, as Captain Kirk used to tell us at the start of Star Trek. And there is still so much of it that humans have yet to see up close, which is the inspiration for this new eight-part drama set around the first manned mission to Mars. At the heart of it is Laz Ingram, played by Natascha McElhone, a brilliant CEO who has worked her entire life to make it happen, and refuses to be held back.

"The backdrop is the adventure into the unknown and hopefully to reach Mars, but it's the getting there that the first season is about," Natascha tells us. "It's how it affects people's lives and their relationships, and the price they're willing to pay to follow those dreams and ambitions. Even though my character

I really like people who aren't superficially likeable. I want to think, "How can we make someone whose choices you question a compelling lead?" Hopefully if we do it right, the fact that he is so flawed is something that will draw people to him. But he does some heinous stuff over the series – within the case and outside of it. He really steps over the line...

stays here, she's wrestling with some of those themes."

Sean Penn also stars as astronaut Tom Hagerty, who was removed from the crew, but becomes crucial to Laz's ongoing efforts to make her Mars mission a reality.

"It transpires that she goes to him cap in hand to say, 'Actually, I may need you back on board in order to get this moving again,'" explains Natascha. "So they rebuild their slightly broken professional relationship.

"I've always thought that Sean's character is like the heart of the show and Laz is like the brain – it's sort of divvied up like that."

A FAIR COP?

ITV has ordered six-part drama A Confession, which explores the true story of Detective Superintendent Steve Fulcher, who ruined his career after breaching police procedure to catch a killer. Martin Freeman, Siobhan Finneran and Imelda Staunton will star.

LOWE AND BEHOLD

Rob Lowe is to executive-produce and star in a new drama, Wild Bill, for ITV. He will play US cop Bill Hixon, who faces a big challenge when he's made Chief Constable of Lincolnshire Police.

IN THE BLOOD

Sherlock creators Mark Gatiss and Steven Moffat are set to reimagine another classic tale for BBC1 – and this time it's Dracula. The blood-sucking fiend will appear in three feature-length episodes – we'll let you know as soon as the classic Count has been cast!

REECE SHEARSMITH AND STEVE PEMBERTON ARE SET TO SPOOK WITH A LIVE HALLOWEEN SPECIAL...

When we meet with Inside No 9's Reece Shearsmith and Steve Pemberton to talk about their latest instalment of the show – a live Halloween special – it's appropriately in the middle of a London cemetery. Gulp. And while preparations are underway for the eerie episode, only so much can be done in advance for a live broadcast.

"It's like they used to do it in the old days," says Steve. "A lot of prep, a lot of build-up, then one chance to get it right on the night."

Steve is Arthur Flitwick, who stumbles upon a lost mobile in a graveyard one night and tries to find its owner. Reece plays local vicar Reverend Neil and there is, of course, a guest star in the mix...

"We've always wanted to work with Stephanie Cole," says Reece, "so we're delighted to be working with her for this particularly special episode."

But why a live show? "It was actually the BBC's suggestion," reveals Steve.

"Yeah, they thought of it – we didn't want to do it!" laughs Reece. "They said, 'What about a live one?' and we thought, 'Oh, perhaps... yes.'"

"If someone puts that challenge down, it's impossible to ignore," agrees Steve.

So what extra pressures does a live televised version bring?

"You have to think as you're writing it, 'How are we going to achieve this?'" explains Steve. "There are theatrical tricks, but we don't really know until we get in that room with the equipment and the crew... it's going to be exciting. Let's just hope it's scary in the right way!"

SATURDAY

STRICTLY COME DANCING: HALLOWEEN SPECIAL | BBC1 6.50PM

Ghost of a dance

Tonight the ballroom gets its annual transformation into a house of horrors, and it's got a high bar to clear: we can't see how anything this episode has in store could be any scarier than Susannah Constantine's samba in week one. You know, the one where Anton Du Beke appeared from underneath her skirt, shaking maracas. We had nightmares for weeks. Weeks.

Hopefully tonight's frightfest will be bone-chilling for all the right reasons as the remaining 11 couples get plastered in make-up (yes, even more so than usual) to cast a spell over the judges and the viewers at home, in the hope of earning themselves one more week in the competition. But there'll be grave tidings for whoever ends up bottom of the leaderboard...

KILLING EVE | BBC1 9.25PM

Eve's increasingly unsure of who she can trust as this roller-coaster ride of a thriller nears its conclusion – a feeling that is amplified when Kenny brings her some of Carolyn's private correspondence, which turns out to be both potentially incriminating and surprisingly filthy (Kenny admits he's "not entirely surprised by either, to be honest"). What Eve gains from all of this is a lead to find the much-discussed Anna – but will their meeting provide any answers? Meanwhile, Villanelle is banged up in not-so-solitary confinement, and someone is very keen to ensure she won't be leaving.

BUTTERFLY | ITV 9PM

Fly away home

The emotional gut-punches just keep on coming in the final part of this moving and thought-provoking drama. Last week's episode ended with (spoiler alert, spoiler alert) Vicky taking the money that Barbara had given her for the business and using it to fly Maxine to the United States for treatment.

While undoubtedly a well-intentioned move, made with her daughter's best interests at heart, let's just say the way she went about it hasn't exactly made Vicky popular back at home: Barbara's furious at unwittingly funding the trip, Lily's hurt and betrayed not to have been told, and Stephen is angry and upset not to have been consulted in the decision. When Vicky and Maxine return, a nasty surprise awaits them...

JANE FONDA IN FIVE ACTS | Sky Atlantic 9PM

Actress, writer, political activist, model, feminist, fitness guru, Oscar-winner – we could go on... Jane Fonda's incredible 80-year (and counting) life has seen its share of controversy, tragedy and triumph, and all of it in the public eye. Her infamous mugshot from her 1970 arrest was plastered across New York's Times Square to advertise this new documentary. We'll take that as a must-watch.

CELEBS GO DATING | E4 9PM

The likes of TOWIE's Chloe Sims, Sam Crask of Diversity, Love Island's Eyal Booker and Mutya Buena of Sugababes get more words of wisdom from the experts on their dating styles. Will any of them find lasting love? (Answer: Probably not.)

THE GIFTED | Fox 9PM

Season two continues apace with coMplIcations (that's the title, not problems with the camerawork). Polaris's baby is suffering from a deadly illness and, without the Inner Circle's help, she's forced to seek help from an unexpected source...

FIRST DATES | Channel 4 10PM

New romantics

The award-winning reality dating show returns for its 11th (11th!) series, with yet more eager singletons perusing the delights on offer at the Paternoster Chop House – and browsing the menu, too (ho ho). As ever, maître d' Fred will be on hand to deliver his pearls of wisdom on love and romance in his dulcet French timbre.

In this first show, recruitment consultant Lee is shunning his party lifestyle in the hope of finding that special someone to enter into a full-time contract with. Will Abbi turn out to be the right girl for the job? And Maggie Thatcher fan Cameron (no, not the former PM) chews the fat with Joe, who's also a lover of politics. But will the Tory boy get Joe's vote when it comes to a second date?

Wife after death

STRANGERS | ITV 9PM

There's no end to the ooh-we-don't-know-who-to-trust-now dramas on our tellybox of late – but we're not complaining, as that list includes this emotional thriller, in which Jonah Mulray (played by the always-brilliant John Simm) finds his life turned upside down after his wife is killed in a car crash in Hong Kong, and he discovers she'd been leading a secret life. But tonight it's the final episode – gah! – so get if you've not caught up with it yet, best find a slot in your calendar for a binge-watch, because we'll finally get the answer to that killer question: was Jonah's marriage nothing but a lie?

CONDOR | Universal 9PM

Are you in the market for an intelligent and compelling new thriller? Because, if so, boy do we ever have the show for you! In this 10-part drama (which gets underway tonight with a double bill), Max Irons stars as Joe Turner, an idealistic CIA analyst concerned that his work is being used for purposes that aren't wholly above-board. But his problems become far greater when everyone in his office is killed, leaving him as the sole survivor...

CRIMINAL MINDS | Sky Witness 9PM

There's double the cause for celebration tonight, as Criminal Minds comes back to begin its 14th season with its 300th episode. When cult leader Benjamin Merva abducts Reid and Garcia, it's up to the rest of the BAU to rescue them.

FRESH FIELDS | Drama 2PM

Julia McKenzie and Anton Rogers star in this classic 1980s sitcom as a couple adapting to life after their grown-up children move out. While William is happy with a quiet life, Hester fills her time by trying out new hobbies.

THE GREAT BRITISH BAKE OFF: THE FINAL | Channel 4 8PM

Sweet success

It's the big one! And we're not just talking about the multi-layered, landscape-themed Showstopper the remaining three contestants are to be challenged with this week.

Yes, the final is upon us, and as the bakers' nearest and dearest gather outside to find out who's won, they're busy panicking over Paul and Prue's final Signature, which involves them tackling doughnuts (of the ringed variety, not spinning cars in circles around Welford Park), and a Technical that isn't actually baked inside the tent. Er, what? Has Noel bought a new barbecue he wants testing out? If he has, it probably churns out burgers in the shape of swans and rainbow-coloured sausages. Either way, we can't wait to see what's cooking.

INFORMER | BBC1 9PM

We're now three episodes into this complex thriller, and this jam-packed instalment sees an unexpected tip-off from Raza leading CTSU to follow the Gramos – an Albanian crime family definitely not to be confused with a well-known American music award. Elsewhere, Gabe is faced with a blast from his past, and his behaviour piques Holly's interest. And as Raza attends Yousef's funeral in pursuit of information, the strain of leading a double life starts to weigh on him – and he struggles to hold on to his old self while accompanying his girlfriend to her sister's wedding...

THE RELUCTANT LANDLORD | Sky One 10PM

Romesh Ranganathan stars in this new sitcom, which he co-wrote based on his own experiences. He plays, er, Romesh, who inherits his late father's pub despite not having anything like the appropriate temperament for running a boozer, but feels obliged to give it a go out of a sense of family duty. In tonight's opener, Romesh tries to make a stand for justice by tackling pub bully Dirty Harry (Phil Davis).

THE DEUCE | Sky Atlantic 10PM

There's change in the air for the whole area tonight as Goldman shares his plans for cleaning up The Deuce. Candy, meanwhile, is putting the finishing touches to Red Hot, and Vincent goes to his dad in search of relationship advice.

PEOPLE OF EARTH | Fox 10.30PM

Close encounters of the comic kind abound in this new sitcom about a support group for alien abductees – although they prefer the term 'experiencers'. When a cynical journalist starts to report on the group, he finds it all surprisingly convincing...

THE SECRET LIFE OF THE ZOO | Channel 4 8PM

Pregnant pause

Spare a thought for Thi, the female head of Chester Zoo's elephant herd, as the behind-the-scenes documentary returns for a new series. Thi is pregnant with her ninth baby, and elephant pregnancies usually last 22 months as it is – but Thi is now three months overdue. The longer her pregnancy continues, the greater the danger to both Thi and her unborn calf. Under normal circumstances, Doctor Inside TV would be prescribing a potent curry to help speed things along, but that's probably not standard practice for elephants... is it?

Elsewhere, a young giant anteater arrives at the zoo as a new companion for the widowed Bliss. It's an episode of First Dates like no other...

THE APPRENTICE | BBC1 9PM

What horrors has Lord Sugar lined up for his aspiring entrepreneurs this All Hallows' Eve? Well, they're going to be... designing shoes for women. Eek! (At least this should put paid to the idea that capitalists have no sole. Geddit? Oh, please yourselves.) One team decides to step away from the obvious route of high heels and opts instead to make bold, funky trainers, while the other starts throwing around words like 'urban' and 'hip-hop', which is almost always an omen of impending disaster on The Apprentice. But which side will be getting blistered by Lord Sugar in the boardroom?

BEN HANLIN'S LIVE & DEADLY: DROWNED | ITV2 9PM

If Christmas is the season to be jolly, then Halloween is apparently the season to do something curiously life-endangering. In this one-off special, magician Ben Hanlin and Joey Essex will be trying their hands at escapology as they attempt to work their way out of an underwater chamber, live on TV...

"I've never done a live magic stunt before," Ben tells Inside TV. "When it's live, you know there's no camera tricks and nowhere to hide. That was the thought, so we started speaking to ITV2 and they said, 'Let's do something on Halloween – let's drown you and somebody else'!

"I don't count myself as a stuntman, but I have done things like The Jump, so I'm a risk-taker," adds Joey. "Mentally, I'm very good under pressure, so I thought this was a good opportunity to prove myself once again!"

The pair will have just five days to train before embarking on the live stunt.

"That's the bit where I'm like, 'Why have we decided to do that?'" admits Ben. "You'd normally prepare for months!"

RAY DONOVAN | Sky Atlantic 9PM

The previous season ended on the morbid note of Ray leaping into New York's East River, but clearly that wasn't the end of the story. Season six begins with Ray being pulled to dry land by a police officer – but what sort of state will he be in?

ARIANA GRANDE AT THE BBC | BBC1 8PM

DON'T Miss!

Grande expectations

One of the delights of the [Artist X] At The BBC series is that it's not just a music show or a chat show; it's a chance for them to be a little bit silly and knockabout if they want to, like when Adele disguised herself within a group of Adele tribute acts at an audition, or the time Michael Bublé donned some facial prosthetics and went to work in John Lewis as a South African sales assistant named Deon.

We already know that Ariana Grande has a quirky sense of humour from her appearances on shows like Saturday Night Live, so we can't wait to see what tricks she's up to in this one-off special. Don't fret, though: there will still be plenty of time for her to sing the hits, and chat to Davina McCall.

DON'T Miss!

GINO'S ITALIAN COASTAL ESCAPE | ITV 8.30PM

After his adventures on the road with Gordon Ramsay and Fred Sirieix, Gino's heading back to his beloved homeland for this latest series in which he'll be exploring the Adriatic Coast (that's the one on the eastern side, just in case you haven't got a map handy). Starting out in Venice, one of the city's youngest gondoliers takes Gino on a tour of the waterways before the pair sample some cicchetti – the Venetian answer to tapas. After lunch (and a spot of cooking from Gino), it's off to the Rialto market to buy fresh seafood, and then to the island of Burano for a lace-making lesson.

WOMEN ON THE VERGE | W 10PM

Alison and Martin have agreed that they're just going to have a "big-ish" wedding (which she clarifies is "a day that we can still call our own, but not get lost in a Where's Wally? picture"), but she's not keen about asking his parents to contribute towards the big day. Meanwhile, Laura is thrilled to bump into her first love Daniel, and Katie's finally back in the dating game – but things don't quite go to plan.

CHICAGO PD | 5USA 9PM

The fifth season of the crime drama concludes as Voight considers handing himself in to get Olinsky out of jail – but before he can officially confess, he hears terrible news. And now Woods has Voight in his sights, are his days numbered?

KEY & PEELE | Comedy Central 11PM

Comedians Jordan Peele (now better known as the director of the Oscar-winning film Get Out) and Keegan-Michael Key star in this acclaimed sketch show. In this opener, President Obama hires an anger translator to help process his emotions.

PORTILLO'S HIDDEN HISTORY OF BRITAIN | Channel 5 9PM

In the flesh

Michael Portillo is back tonight for a second run of his series that goes behind closed doors in some of Britain's most mysterious and historically-important buildings.

His first destination is the Cambridge Military Hospital

(which, confusingly, is in Aldershot, not Cambridge), which has been closed for 22 years but played a key role in the advance of modern surgery. Michael finds out more about Harold Gillies, a young military surgeon during the First World War, who pioneered a way of keeping grafted flesh alive, and laid the groundwork for modern plastic surgery in the process. That's not all: Gillies also went on to carry out one of the world's first female-to-male sex reassignment surgeries.

The lies have it

WOULD I LIE TO YOU? | BBC1 9.30PM

We've always praised Would I Lie To You? for attracting guests who are outside the usual panel show recruitment circle, but tonight's show truly is a work of genius: Lee's team consists of Scarlett Moffatt and weather presenter Tomasz Schafernaker, while David is joined by The Great British Bake Off's Prue Leith and grime artist Big Narstie. You don't get a line-up like that on Mock The Week, that's for sure. Tonight: Scarlett claims that she once kept a goldfish in Ribena (David: "What did it die of? Diabetes?"), and did Tomasz really not know that lambs were baby sheep until he was in his mid-30s?

HOMECOMING | Amazon Prime Video

Julia Roberts (yes, Julia Roberts) stars in this new psychological thriller as Heidi Bergman, a caseworker at the Homecoming Transitional Support Centre, helping soldiers to adapt back to civilian life. Four years later, Heidi's situation has changed majorly: she's living with her mother and working as a waitress. Why did she leave? An official pays her a visit to ask that very question...

HOUSE OF CARDS | Netflix

Following Kevin Spacey's exit under a cloud, the political saga returns for a final, Claire-centric season. Diane Lane and Greg Kinnear join the cast as industrialist siblings Annette and Bill Shepherd – but what's their tie to the Underwoods?

A DISCOVERY OF WITCHES | Sky One 9PM

The supernatural saga comes to a close tonight as Matthew's efforts to rescue Diana from Juliette end up demonstrating just how dangerous Diana's powers really are. Will the pair escape with their lives before Gerbert can catch them?

IN and OUT

We spin soap's revolving door...

IN CORA CROSS (Ann Mitchell, EastEnders)

We haven't heard a lot on the battle for baby Abi recently, but the plot is set to come back with a vengeance following the news that Cora is making a return to the Square. But what does the big-haired battleaxe have in store for Tanya and Max? Actress Tanya Franks – who plays Rainie – tells us there are some big twists to come. “I have an idea of where that story is going and I think the audience will be excited by what happens, as it might not be what they're expecting,” she teases.

Next week

MADELEINE WEST (Andrea Somers, Neighbours)

IN Things won't settle down soon for Toadie, Sonya and their family – with the news that we'll be seeing Andrea back on our screens next month. Her appearance comes when a Ramsay Street resident pays her a visit, and a secret is revealed. But don't expect all the answers! “This story will require viewer patience,” teases executive producer Jason Herbison.

November

PENNY McNAMEE (Dr Tori Morgan, Home and Away)

The Summer Bay actress is pregnant with her second child, and will be taking maternity leave in the new year. Penny has revealed that she struggled to conceive second time around after being diagnosed with the painful womb condition Endometriosis. “We had planned to try for six months and then the next step for us was IVF,” reveals the actress, who is married to Matt Tooker. “So to fall pregnant in the fifth month – we just felt such relief and gratitude.” But with her alter ego Tori trying IVF herself with sperm donor Robbo, does this mean the medic will fall pregnant, too? 2019

THE EX FILES!

What are the one-time stars of soap up to now?

TO THE DARK SIDE!

She'll always be blonde bombshell Ronnie Mitchell to us – but ex-EastEnders star Samantha Womack is almost unrecognisable after ditching her trademark golden locks! The actress – whose Square character was sensationally killed off – has swapped her fair hair to go brunette. Sam has previously joked that she could return to the Square as Ronnie's "weird Australian twin sister", so maybe this is her chance!

ROVERS RETURN?

Street treasure Katherine Kelly admits that she often thinks about a return to Weatherfield for her character Becky McDonald. "I've been asked this question so many times that I actually think about it very deeply," confesses the star, who left the cobbles in 2012 before starring in shows such as Mr Selfridge and The Night Manager. "But even though the door was left open, it would be hard for me to go back. Some things are better left where they are."

THE HAPPY COUPLE!

Huge congratulations to Oscar-winner and ex-Hollyoaks actress Rachel Shenton who, in the midst of scooping an Academy Award for her short film, The Silent Child, wed her fiancé and co-writer, Chris Overton. "We got married not so long ago, during all the madness!" admits Rachel, aka Mitzeeee Minniver. "It was a private event, but we're so happy. It's been such a busy 12 months that I don't know what we're doing next year!"

DVD DOWN A DARK HALL

Blackwood Boarding School for teens promises to reform rebellious students into model citizens. But when inexplicable events occur, the pupils realise that they must discover secrets of the place if they want to survive...

BOOK THE OTHER SISTER

by Elle Croft

Gina stumbles upon a dead body – but following the incident, she later realises that there are gaps in her memory of that night. And after she finds a second body, it becomes clear that she's being targeted...

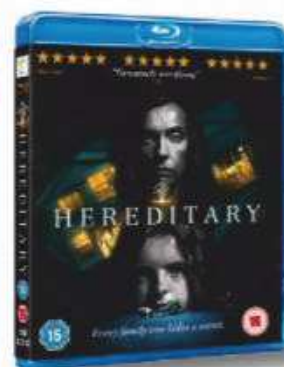

STAR CHOICE

Hollyoaks' Annie Wallace (Sally)

I love horror films – I'm a big fan! I watched The Witch around Halloween a few years ago, and I thought it was really unsettling. It's a supernatural horror film and is set in the 1630s when the pilgrims came over to New England in America. It's quite shocking. It gave me a few nightmares, that one!

BLU-RAY HEREDITARY

Annie, her husband and their kids learn terrifying secrets about their ancestry when Ellen, the matriarch of their family, dies. The more they uncover, the more they learn about the fate that they have inherited. Is the future sealed? Or can they escape their heritage?

BOOK BEFORE I LET YOU GO

by Kelly Rimmer

When Lexie and Annie were young, they were close. But now, they couldn't be further apart. That is until Annie begs Lexie for help with her young daughter – leaving both siblings with impossible decisions to make.

HITS & MISSES!

WHAT'S HIT THE BULLSEYE RECENTLY – AND WHAT'S FALLEN WIDE OF THE MARK?

Jacob has the hots for his dad's girlfriend – his own history teacher. If this is to go down the 'Becca and Justin from Hollyoaks' road, please excuse us while we throw up in a bin.

David Metcalfe should be good with pumpkins, given how many hearts he's carved out over the years.

Even today, nothing says Coronation Street quite like a big head of rollers. You just don't get that in Emmerdale or EastEnders.

Evelyn is taking none of Mary's nonsense.

The morning after the 'super soap week' before.

BULLSEYE!

Every so often, it dawns on us that something is awry in Walford... and then June Brown reappears, and we remember what we've been missing. Having Dot back is like putting on a comfy pair of slippers, and the fear that she could be dying had us consoling ourselves with a small sherry. But then, what about poor Dr Legg's devastating diagnosis? We're heartbroken!

We're worried how far Gail is going to go with that fringe.

Pete Barton has really fallen on his feet moving in with Rhona. He's the only member of his family who isn't dead or loathing life. It just goes to show that it really does pay to be nice!

So... Jack and Rainie's fling has been caught on video and Ruby's kiss on cameraphone, while Sharon and Keanu's love-making is now a digital voice file. The residents of Walford are cursed by modern technology at the moment!

That's very restrained of you, Billy – seeing as you once kept a stash of Lucy Beale photos hidden under your fridge. Inside Soap never forgets!

All it took was a glance at these EastEnders publicity shots from 2014 for it to dawn on Jean that Alfie is the father of Hayley's baby. She'd make better money as a psychic than Big Mo ever has!

We love how the Connors managed to wipe out Weatherfield's most notorious crime family almost entirely by mistake. Perhaps they should take over?
